1. What is career development?

    Lifelong process managing one's learning and work-related activities (Correct)

    An approach and on-going process where employees and manager partner to map out realistic paths. (Correct)

    Getting a promotion

    Only for people who are early in their career

    Only for people who are later in their career

2. What is your current stage of life that guides you to the career development that you consider important??

    Role Satisfaction

    New Hire

    Work-life adjustment

    Retirement

    Other

3. Do you know what brings you joy?

    Yes

    No

    Maybe

4. Do you know what you are good at?

    Yes

    No

    Maybe

5. What have you done to develop yourself in the past?

    Virtual Training

    In-person Training

    Conferences

Shadowing

Received mentoring or coaching

Extended your education (bachelor, masters, etc.)

Took on a new project

Support someone else's duties while they were on leave

Served on a committee

6. What do you now consider the most important part of your career development?

    Preparation

    Conversation

    Development

    All the above!