About the Faculty Council Awards [1]

The Faculty Council administers the following awards:

Leadership in Public Higher Education [2]

The Leadership in Higher Education award recognizes a public official or other individual in the Sate of Colorado whose leadership on issues directly affecting public higher education results in significant, positive change.

Administrator of the Year Award [3]

The award for Administrator of the Year is given (though not necessarily on an annual basis) to a CU administrator in recognition of significant contribution(s) to the University, to Faculty Council, and/or to shared and faculty governance. The winner receives a plaque from Faculty Council, presented at a Faculty Council meeting and/or a Board of Regents meeting.

Distinguished Service Award [4]

The Faculty Council Distinguished Service Award recognizes the service of faculty to the University of Colorado. It is designed to recognize contributions through participation in faculty governance, particularly through activities in Faculty Council and its committee structures.

Elizabeth D. Gee Memorial Lectureship Award [5]

The Elizabeth D. Gee Memorial Lectureship Award recognizes and honors an outstanding faculty member of the University of Colorado for efforts to advance women in academia, interdisciplinary scholarly contributions and distinguished teaching. Instituted in 1992, the award is named for Elizabeth Gee, a faculty member in the Health Sciences Center School of Nursing and the late wife of former CU President, Gordon Gee.
