Women's Committee [1]

The Women's Committee considers concerns of women faculty, including:

1. Assessing the cultural climate of the university as it pertains to opportunities of women faculty for academic advancement, productivity and appropriate compensation;
2. Making recommendations for creating an academic environment that fosters the academic success of women faculty;
3. Working to assure fairness in the recruitment and retention of women faculty;
4. Developing support networks and recommending policy to address the needs of women faculty;
5. Administering the_ [2]Elizabeth Gee Memorial Lectureship Award

Lactation rooms available for new mothers

As a new mother, you might need a little privacy to take care of your little one. That's why we offer lactation rooms on all CU campuses.

Find the best location for you:

- CU Boulder: Visit the campus resources page [17], and click on "Parenting & Childcare" for a list of lactation rooms.
- UCCS: There is a lactation room in University Center, Room 300 D.
- CU Denver: See a full list of lactation rooms. [18]
- CU Anschutz: See a full list of lactation rooms. [19]
- CU System: There is a lactation room on the southeast corner first floor, near the break room and showers. You can book the room by sending an Outlook request; just search for RM-Lactation Room-106 when creating a meeting invitation.

For these and other employee resources, visit the Collaborative HR Services website [20].
