UCCS Chancellor Highlights Outreach Efforts with Senate Education Committee [1]

May 13, 2015 by Natalie Barry [2]

UCCS Chancellor Pam Shockley-Zalabak gave a presentation to the Senate Education Committee on the impressive collaborative efforts in Southern Colorado in which the campus is engaged. She highlighted their work on access, encouraging young people to pursue higher education, and also innovative research and technology issues such as cybersecurity. Chancellor Shockley-Zalabak thanked the committee members for their continued support of higher education and they expressed gratitude for her leadership at UCCS on these important issues.
