CU Innovation & Efficiency Awards: Congratulations to the Winners! [1]

June 22, 2023

We congratulate all the individuals and teams who successfully submitted innovative projects to this year's CU Innovation & Efficiency Awards Program!

Out of all the great submissions [2] we received, it isn't easy to narrow it down to the semifinalists [3] ... and then to narrow that list down to the final award winners ... However, the voting has been completed.

Watch our short video [4] to find out who won, and what they did.

Thanks to everyone who participated. We look forward to hearing more from you -- and from all of you -- when the 2024 awards program opens next year.
