

PRIDE POINTS

1

The only comprehensive Alzheimer's disease research and clinical center in the Rocky Mountain west, is based at the CU Anschutz Medical Campus.

1

CU-Boulder's ranking among public universities in NASA research funding. Ranked #2 among all public and private universities.

1ST

CU Denver's J.P. Morgan Center for Commodities is the first and only of its kind focused on the study of all commodities.

1ST

Liver transplant was performed by CU physicians.

1ST

Shingles vaccine, developed by CU physicians and researchers.

4

FDA-approved drugs discovered by CU researchers, landing CU in the top 10 of public universities for drug discoveries.

5

CU Nobel laureates; 4 awarded since 2001.

10

CU faculty who are MacArthur "Genius" Fellows. These individuals receive five-year grants recognizing exceptional creative work and prospects for continued success.

10+

Years CU Colorado Springs has been ranked among the Best in the West for western regional public universities by U.S. News and World Report.

16

NASA instruments designed and built by CU, the world's only research institution to create instruments that have traveled to every planet in the solar system.

160

Companies created because of CU's research and development. CU is in the top 10% of universities nationally for annual company creation.

290

Outreach programs in CU for Colorado, serving communities and more than one million people across the state.

3,300

CU Advocates, a volunteer network of people promoting and supporting CU through grassroots advocacy. Join at CU.edu.

250,000

CU alumni in Colorado.

445,000

CU alumni around the world.

