Congresswoman DeGette and Congressmen Polis and Swalwell Visit CU Denver to Talk College Affordability [1]

May 16, 2016 by Natalie Barry [2]

CU Denver's School of Public Affairs and the Jake Jabs Center for Entrepreneurship housed within the CU Denver Business School hosted Congresswoman Diana DeGette, Congressman Jared Polis, and Congressman Eric Swalwell for a conversation centered on college affordability and entrepreneurship among millennials. During the discussion, the congressional members were able to hear from both faculty and students on their experiences, as well as highlight the work taking place in Congress to address college affordability and promote entrepreneurship among younger Americans.
