

Faculty Council Resolution of Appreciation for

John D. McDowell, DDS, MS

Whereas, John D. McDowell, DDS, MS, has served two consecutive terms as Faculty Council Chair with unwavering commitment to the University and representation of faculty; and

Whereas, John McDowell, has proven himself to be a thoughtful, effective, hard-working leader and representative of all faculty of the University of Colorado; and

Whereas, John McDowell has represented all campuses of the University with fairness and adroitness, and

Whereas, John McDowell has communicated well with members of the CU Board of Regents and has worked collegially with President Benson and administrators; and

Whereas, John McDowell has proven to be a strong and capable leader while addressing multiple and complex issues facing CU; and

Whereas, John McDowell is a person of character and integrity who values and appreciates the views of all parties involved in decision making and builds consensus from varying views.

Therefore, be it resolved

That John McDowell be recognized for his years of outstanding service to the faculty of the University of Colorado; and

Be it further resolved

That John McDowell be recognized and honored for his contributions and accomplishments as the Faculty Council Chair.

Presented with gratitude from the current, past, and future members of Faculty Council of the University of Colorado

13 May 2010