

What's new in eComm: March 2014 ^[1]

March 6, 2014

We've been busy! We're pleased to announce a fresh eComm website at www.cu.edu/ecom ^[2]. The website is designed for eComm users like you. Check it out and send feedback to contact@cu.edu ^[3].

We're also pleased to present Amy Ventura as a new addition to the eComm team. Amy is Advancement's new Digital Communications Manager. If you work in the CU Office of Advancement, Amy is your eComm go-to and can be reached at amy.ventura@cu.edu ^[4].

This issue provides a collection of news and tips to help enhance your eComm experience. View What's new in eComm: March 2014 ^[5] issue.

Enjoy!

Sincerely,
Your eComm Team ^[6]

Promoted to department's home page:

1

Cite:

https://www.cusys.edu/universityrelations/ecom/enevents/2013m02_ecomm-enevents_web.html

Intro:

March 2014 issue of "What's new in eComm" is here!

Original Story:

News Type:

News ^[7]

Groups audience:

eComm

Source URL:<https://www.cu.edu/ecom/news/whats-new-ecom-march-2014>

Links

[1] <https://www.cu.edu/ecom/news/whats-new-ecom-march-2014> [2] <https://www.cu.edu/ecom>

[3] <mailto:contact@cu.edu> [4] <mailto:amy.ventura@cu.edu>

[5] https://www.cusys.edu/universityrelations/ecom/enevents/2013m02_ecomm-enevents_web.html

[6] <https://www.cu.edu/ecom/contact-us/ecom-specialists> [7] <https://www.cu.edu/news/news>