About Employee Services ^[1]

Employee Services serves CU employees through these primary functions:

- Benefits: Providing university employees and faculty with excellent health benefits, a variety of retirement plans, life and disability insurance
- Employee Learning and Development: Providing university-wide development and administration of quality learning programs to maximize job performance and satisfaction for faculty, staff and student workers
- Financial Wellness: Bridging the gap between your benefits and the financial decisions you need to make the right choices
- Human Resources: Delivering HR services to the employees in System Administration, working in conjunction with campus HR directors to identify policy changes and manage training compliance
HR plays a role in recruiting outstanding employees to the University of Colorado's four campuses and system office.
- Payroll: Ensuring accurate and timely payroll and leading university-wide pay and time collection, as well as helping CU's international employees to navigate U.S. tax laws and related issues
