

International Employee ^[1]

The International Tax Office provides many resources to assist you in meeting your U.S. tax obligations.

Schedule an appointment with an International Tax specialist

All new international CU employees are required to meet with an international tax specialist to identify their tax status, complete proper tax forms, facilitate any available tax treaty benefits and clarify any tax filing responsibilities.

To prepare for your meeting:

- Bring your passport, I-94 ^[2] and immigration documents. A Social Security Number (SSN) is not required.
- Plan to review your entire history of presence in the U.S.

Coming soon: Request an access code for Sprintax

To assist with U.S. tax filing obligations, nonresident alien students and employees who are sponsored by CU can use Sprintax software. This online tool can help you navigate the U.S.'s complex system and helps ensure all tax information and requirements are correct for an accurate federal tax return. Licences will be available soon.
