

Communications Committee <sup>[1]</sup>

The Communications Committee considers communication of information regarding the University of Colorado within the University and to the broader communities impacted by the University including:

1. Advising systemwide communication media to assure inclusion of relevant content;
2. Identifying appropriate technology used to communicate information.
3. Coordinating the flow of information among campuses and with systemwide University communications.
4. Recognizing and promoting examples of excellence found in the University as a means of encouraging continuous growth of excellence.
5. Informing constituencies of the issues before the Faculty Council and urging them to contribute their opinions, analysis, and ideas to the discussion.
6. Publicizing current and upcoming events of significance to the faculty and staff and promoting awareness of the mission and impact of the Faculty Council and other shared governance bodies.
7. Encouraging greater participation in the shared governance process.
