System HR Update, Jill Pollock
Jill reported on the following:
- Updates to PeopleSoft will take place over the next 2 years.
- Open enrollment period for health insurance ends tomorrow (11/22).
- Program updates: smoking cessation, weight watchers
Jill also responded to questions regarding student health insurance, addition of programs for alcohol/substance abuse, mental health parity, monitoring of reserves, and re-hospitalization.

Academic Affairs Update, Kathleen Bollard
Kathleen reported on the following:
- Two distinguished professors will be honored
- Climate survey is being developed
- Prioritization project
Kathleen also announced she will be returning to a faculty position beginning next year.
Security Update, Chirag Joshi & Dan Jones
Chirag & Dan reported on the planned update to the CU Data Classification process. They provided an explanation of data classification, definition of risk, and discussed how updating the terminology should help to reduce confusion over the categories. There was also additional discussion regarding data classified as highly confidential vs. confidential.

Faculty Council Chair’s Report, Melinda Piket-May
Melinda reported on the following:
- Topics discussed at The Online Opportunity: Preparing the Institution for High-Quality Digital Instruction at Scale.
- Possibility of retired faculty members serving as mentors to junior faculty members
- Hoping to bring up terminology change in several APS’s at Dec. meeting
- UBAB discontinuation
- Educational advisory board - online learning
- P&T’s need for a senior faculty member, esp. a Library person

Faculty Council Vice-Chairs Report, Laura Borgelt
Laura reported on the Bylaws review and update. She has requested feedback and recommendations from committees, and will request from all faculty in Jan. She noted that if the constitution also needs to change it will be a much larger process. There was discussion regarding topics in the constitution that might need to be changed, and topics currently missing from both the bylaws and constitution (e.g. processes for committee liaisons). There was also additional discussion regarding UBAB discontinuation.

Discussion with Regent Carrigan
Discussion mostly focused on issues related to CU’s marketing plan, locally and nationally, and issues related to budget and tuition increases. Regent Carrigan also noted that the Regents have realized they need to do better job of communicating to the campuses what they are working on.

Communication Update, Ken McConnellogue and Cathy Beuten
Ken and Cathy reported on the system Communication Plan, emphasizing the goal is to augment and enhance campus communications. There was discussion about how this relates to CU Connections, and the need to package it correctly so it is well received by faculty. They also gave an overview of the CU.edu website update, scheduled for a soft launch in about 2 weeks.

Campus Reports

Anschutz, David Port
David reported that there have still been many issues related to grants not being reviewed or paid out during government shutdown.
Boulder, Paul Chinowsky
Paul reported on the following:
  • Creation of two new schools: School of Environment (within A&S) and CMCI (communication & media) which will be independent.
  • BeBoudler campaign
  • Working to coordinate with faculty affairs in looking at distribution of service from faculty in different departments.

Denver, Joanne Addison
Joanne reported on the following:
  • CSU south metro potential threat
  • Currently have several key hire positions
  • RIR group: data analytics in regards to graduation and retention
  • Improvements in shared governance structure

Colorado Springs, Michelle Companion
Michelle reported on campus discussions about discontinuation of UBAB, looking at better ways for campus governance to address any issues that may arise

Committee Updates

GLBTI, David Bondelevitch
David reported on the GLBTI Symposium and results from the GLBTI Survey. Discussed concerns brought up about transgender issues, underrepresentation from Denver and AMC, and need for climate study.

EMAC, Mark Knowles
Mark reported on the EMAC Student Retention Symposium. Had good turnout, including from Colorado Springs. Discussed use of an Equity Score Card.

Communication, Mark Malone
No additional update

EPUS, Ravinder Singh
No update, will have motions for the next meeting.
