2015-2021 Florida A&M University – Tallahassee, Florida
Associate Provost for Graduate Education and Dean of the School of Graduate Studies, Research, and Continuing Education; and Professor of History (Tenured)

The Associate Provost for Graduate Education and Dean of the School of Graduate Studies, Research and Continuing Education (SGSR) provides leadership and coordination of programs and services in the promotion of academic success for all graduate students. The Associate Provost oversees the operations of key offices within the Division of Academic Affairs and works with the broader University community to promote: (1) the processes for graduate student admission, financial support and retention; (2) recruitment of a diverse and talented population of students; (3) the implementation and maintenance of innovative, effective mentoring and academic support services to support student learning, student success and professional development; representing Academic Affairs in the collective bargaining process for the following bargaining unit (UFF-Graduate Assistants); and, (4) effective execution of academic practices in alignment with the policies and academic goals of the University.

Major Responsibilities:

- Coordinated efforts among deans, chairs and faculty members in the promotion of excellence in academic degree offerings and student academic performance.
- Monitored key academic performance measures and development of graduate student academic performance reports for the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs.
- Promoted a campus-wide understanding of policies, procedures, and best practices relative to student success and accountability.
- Ensured compliance with all academic policies established by the Board of Governors, Board of Trustees, Academic Policies Committee, accrediting bodies, and other accountability stakeholders.
- Promoted a positive image and maintains effective relationships for the Office of the Provost by representing the Provost at various meetings, communicating with University administrators, faculty, staff, and students in matters related to graduate education, and leading or serving on selected University committees and task forces.

Major Accomplishments:

Management

- Conducted monthly Graduate Council meetings during the academic year.
- Reorganized personnel and personnel functions in the SGSR.
- Supervised corrections/updates to the SGSR website.
- Eliminated excess within the fellowship, tuition, and assistantship system.
- Centralized graduate funding so all awards will flow through the SGSR. In other words, the SGSR served as direct point of contact for graduate students' financial aid, regardless of the funding source.
- Established deadlines to ensure timely posting of financial awards and submission of graduate recommendations funded by the SGSR. This significantly improved graduate students being placed on payroll in timely manner.
- Revised the forms for graduate students' and faculty funding, by reducing the number of pages for the application and removing the dates to ensure the forms are always readily available.
- Hosted annual Graduate Student Appreciation Week.
- Directed SACS re-accreditation process for all graduate programs at the university (2018).
- Devised and managed the Graduate School's Academic Learning Compacts in STARS (SACS).
- Co-hosted the Florida Council of Graduate Schools Annual Symposium with Florida State University on April 19-20, 2018. This was the first time an HBCU hosted the meeting and the first time the event was jointly hosted by two universities.
- Served on the strategic planning committee and ensured the prominence of graduate education as part of the "FAMU Rising" strategic plan (2017-2022).
- Organized the Fall 2019 Graduate Feeder Conference (40 institutions & 1,000 students participated).
- Settled collective bargaining negotiations with Graduate Assistants United (GAU) through 2020.

Budget & Finance

- Managed the Graduate School's annual budget totaling approximately $5.5MM.
- Ensured that graduate students, funded by the SGSR, did not receive funding exceeding the cost of their tuition and fees, allowing the SGSR to fund more students.
- Awarded up to $1.7MM annually in fellowships from 2015 until 2020.
- Provided up to $1.1MM annually in assistantships without fringe benefits over three years from fall of 2015 to summer 2020.
- Awarded up to $1.3MM annually in tuition waivers to graduate students over a three-year period from 2015 to 2020.
- Hosted "Financial and Academic Workshop" for all program coordinators and department chairs.
- Successfully revised process for Title III funding for graduate assistants, eliminating gaps in funding.
- Awarded eight graduate students the Delores Auzenne Fellowship annually at $5,193 each for a total of $41,500.
- Provided up to 30 graduate "Student Travel Awards" annually up to $500 each.
- Awarded five graduate students the State University System Award (SUS) annually @ $10K each in assistantships, plus tuition assistance.

Recruitment, Retention & Progression

- Increased the number of enrolled black male graduate students by 100% from 2016 to 2021.
- Graduated 18 doctoral students in one semester at the summer 2021 commencement, the largest class of doctoral graduates in the history of the institution.

- Increased the number of doctoral graduates, on average, by 10% from spring 2016 to spring 2020, which helps the university maintain its Carnegie Research II classification.
- Increased the number of annual graduate degrees awarded by the university over a four-year period by 9%, going from 328 in 2015-2016 to 356 for the 2018-2019 academic year.
- Streamlined graduate admissions by implementing a 100% on-line graduate process with CollegeNET.
- Developed targeted approaches to addressing unprocessed applications in SharePoint using data analytics.
- SGSR participated in 10 recruitment fairs annually.
- Increased graduate student applications, on average, from Fall 2015 to Fall 2020 by 63% going from 657 to 1,070.
- Increased graduate admits by 49% from Fall 2015 to Fall 2019, going from 291 to 434, on average.
- Increased new graduate enrollment, on average, by 23% going from 214 to 263 from Fall 2015 to Fall 2019.
- Assisted the College of Education on program recommendations that related to enhancing student admissions, retention and progression, graduation rates, and support for faculty.
- Developed recruitment plan for on-campus and off-campus recruitment.
- Hosted 45 professional development workshops for 986 students on topics ranging from Improving Research Skills & Ref-works, Writing a Personal Statement, and Financial Literacy during the 2019-2020 school year.
