PART E: PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

Employees must uphold ethical standards appropriate to their position within the university as defined in state law and regent policies. These include but are not limited to standards applicable to conflicts of interest and conflicts of commitment.

REGENT POLICY: 3: Officers and University Staff

Policy 3B: Conflict of Interest—University Staff

1. Obligations of University Staff

With the acceptance of a full- or part-time appointment at the University of Colorado, a university staff person agrees to conduct his or her affairs so that he or she shall not derive private gain from his or her association with the university, except as permitted by regent or university policies after appropriate disclosure to an appropriate official. University staff shall act in the best interest of the university, and arrange outside obligations, financial interests, and activities so as to not compromise their overriding commitment to the university.

2. Officer Disclosure of Outside Interests

Officers shall submit an annual written disclosure of material outside interests and activities and the supervising authorities shall review such disclosures for possible conflicts of interest. The President of the University of Colorado shall establish a materiality threshold for such disclosures, and shall periodically review that threshold.

Policy 3C Outside Consulting and Service on External Boards

University staff may be asked to provide consulting services to external organizations or to serve on boards of external organizations (collectively referred to as “Outside Services”). This policy sets forth the conditions under which university staff may engage in Outside Services that may affect the university or the university staff employment responsibilities.

General:
1. All Outside Services that occur during an university staff’s normal working hours, for which no vacation leave is taken, are subject to approval by the university staff’s supervising authority. Supervising authorities may authorize such Outside Services as long as such services advance the interest of the university and do not unduly conflict with the employee’s university employment responsibilities.

2. Consistent with state fiscal rules on honoraria, any compensation received for Outside Services occurring during the university staff’s normal working hours must be remitted to the university unless the university staff is on authorized vacation or unpaid leave.

3. University staff’s providing Outside Services for organizations that do business with the university shall disclose their involvement with the external organization to their supervising authority for appropriate conflict of interest considerations under Board and university policy.

4. University staff’s who receive compensation or other remuneration from an external organization for Outside Services shall not make or influence university decisions with respect to any business relations and decisions that involve the external organization.

Officers:
The following additional conditions are set forth for officers engaged in Outside Services:

1. Outside Services may not unduly conflict with the officer’s university employment responsibilities, regardless of when they occur.

2. Outside Services for which compensation is received is permitted only if:
   - the Outside Services are requested because of the individual merit, expertise, and experience of the university officer; and
   - the Outside Services are disclosed to and are subject to the approval of the individual with personnel action authority as described in Policy 2-K.

Policy 3CE: Searches for Officers of the University Administrators and Guidelines for the Appointment of Chief Officers of the University

3.C.1 Search Committees Policy Statement

a. Search committees are mandated when vacancies occur. The officers of the university are in the positions of the president, university counsel, secretary of the Board of Regents, treasurer, and associate vice president of internal audit, vice president, chancellors, vice chancellors, and deans of schools, colleges, and libraries.

b. Vacancies for these positions shall be filled in accordance with this regent policy. Searches for the president and chancellors shall also be conducted in accordance with C.R.S. § 24–6–402(3.5).

c. The board of Regents may authorize deviations from the processes defined in this policy. If the board deviates from the defined process, a written justification will be released to faculty and staff.

d. Qualified internal candidates shall be given an equal opportunity to compete with qualified external candidates.

e. All searches must be conducted in a timely and professional manner that respects the rights of candidates to confidentiality, to the extent permitted by law.

3.C.2 Definitions

(A) Appointing authority.

The appointing authority is the individual or body who shall approve the appointment. For those employees reporting to the Board of Regents the "appointing authority" means the Board of Regents.

(B) Supervising authority.

The supervising authority is the individual or body to whom the employee directly reports. For those employees reporting to the Board of Regents, the "supervising authority" means the Board of Regents. In a presidential search the Board of Regents is both the appointing and supervising authority. In a chancellor or vice presidential search, the president is both the appointing and supervising authority.

(C) Candidate.

A person who applies for the position as an officer of the university, of president, vice president, chancellor, vice chancellor, or dean of schools, colleges, and libraries, or who consents to be considered for such position upon nomination by another and who is deemed qualified for the position, as determined by the search committee.

(D) Finalist.

A candidate who has agreed to be advanced for final consideration and potential appointment as an officer of the university, for the position of president or chancellor.
A candidate for the office of president person who is named as a finalist shall be named in accordance with the requirements of Colo. Rev. Stat. 24-6-402(3.5) and records pertaining to that person shall be available for public inspection as allowed by Colo. Rev. Stat. 24-72-204(XI)(A-B).

3.C.3 Search Procedures for Officers of the University

a. The Search Committee

The supervising authority shall issue a charge to the committee and establish the search budget. The basic charge of a search committee is to generate a strong pool of candidates and advise the supervising authority of those candidates best qualified to meet the university's needs. These duties shall be accomplished in a professional and timely manner. The search committee should be constituted and the search process commenced as quickly as is reasonably possible after it becomes known that a vacancy will occur. A search administrator and an affirmative action diversity officer shall assist the search committee.

b. Membership

The composition and selection of the search committee is defined in subsection j. of this policy. A search committee member takes on a great responsibility not as a representative of a particular constituency but as a representative of all members of the university community. Each member is expected to participate fully in committee activities and to vote.

c. Charge to the Committee

For each position for which a search has been authorized, the supervising authority shall issue a charge to the committee and establish the search budget. The charge will outline in appropriate detail the requirements that the committee shall respect, namely:

1. the scope of the search (internal, state/regional, or national) and methods of soliciting nominations;
2. the any requirements of affirmative action;
3. target dates for completing each stage of the search process and the schedule of reporting to the supervising authority Board of Regents;
4. the number of candidates to be recommended to the supervising authority Board of Regents;
5. the arrangements to be followed for campus visits if required;
6. the provisions by which the committee will handle communications regarding the search and the evaluation of candidates; and
7. information regarding the procedure to follow for committees making use of the services of a professional consultant or search firm.

d. Committee Process

Before commencing its search, the committee shall consult with the supervising authority to discuss and clarify the charge, desired academic or, management, financial, legal or other credentials for candidates, and any other appropriate criteria for screening and selecting candidates. The supervising authority in consultation with the search committee will determine the most important qualities needed. In presidential and chancellor searches the committee must operate in accordance with the provisions of Section 24-6-402 C.R.S. §24–6–402, Open Meetings law.

The supervising authority Board of Regents will set the anticipated salary range at the outset of a search and inform candidates at the appropriate time. The committee shall not assume limitations on salary or other conditions that would qualify the considerations of candidates unless specified by
In extraordinary circumstances, the supervising authority Board of Regents, in consultation with the appointing authority, may elect to offer a salary outside the specified range.

The search committee shall develop a search plan consistent with the charge to the committee.

c.c. Search Committee Chair

The supervising authority shall appoint the search committee chair and may appoint co-chairs. In the case of a presidential search, the committee chair shall be at least one regent. The primary responsibilities of the chair shall be to ensure that the best qualified candidates are considered and to:

1. guide the committee in developing and implementing the search plan;
2. oversee the professional and timely operation of the committee;
3. guarantee an opportunity for all qualified candidates to receive committee consideration;
4. work with an affirmative action diversity officer to ensure that effective recruitment mechanisms are utilized and that the committee is provided information relevant to the recruitment of underrepresented groups;
5. ensure that complete records of meetings and action are maintained;
6. maintain the confidentiality of the committee proceedings, communications with candidates, and the identity of candidates, to the extent permitted by law;
7. be the sole spokesperson regarding committee activities and the status of the search process;
8. communicate with candidates and inform them of the status of the search process;
9. ensure that financial expenditures generated by the committee are approved prior to their obligation;
10. report to the supervising authority Board of Regents the deliberations of the committee, divisions of opinion, and information it has compiled about recommended candidates. The chair should report immediately if any difficulties arise which threaten the committee's successful operation;
11. when deemed necessary, authorize the committee members to visit a candidate's place of employment if finances and candidate circumstances allow;
12. make arrangements for a meeting between the supervising authority Board of Regents and the search committee at the conclusion of the search process; and
13. compile the search committee final report summarizing the process and lessons learned for the benefit of future search committees for submission to the supervising authority Board of Regents.

d. Search Administrator

The system or campus administration must provide the committee adequate resources, assistance, and release time to carry out its responsibilities.

The supervising authority Board of Regents shall designate a search administrator with responsibility for providing staff support to the search committee. The designated search administrator shall:

1. manage all logistics requirements;
2. maintain procedures for preserving search committee records; and

3. provide candidates with information relevant to the search and the university.

9.e. Professional Consultant Support
At the discretion of the supervising authority, a committee may use a professional consultant or search firm. A professional consultant or search firm shall not be used as a substitute for a required search committee.

The Procurement Service Center will maintain an approved list of pre–qualified professional consultants or firms.

h.f. Candidate Selection
The search committee emphasis shall be on attracting and selecting qualified candidates. The search committee will recommend to the supervising authority the candidates it determines are best qualified to fill the position.

The supervising authority will determine which of the recommended candidates will be interviewed and in what order. The supervising authority shall also have the authority to interview a highly qualified candidate who has not been recommended by the search committee.

Requirements for president and chancellor searches are set forth in C.R.S. § 24–6–402 (3.5) and C.R.S. § 24–72–204(3)(a)(XI)(A).

i.g. Final Selection
The supervising authority will evaluate the candidates by means of personal interviews and by such other information as may be obtained. Before making a final selection, the supervising authority will meet with the search committee. In the case of searches for chancellors and vice presidents, the president will consult with the regents in the final selection process and the regents may be involved in interviewing candidates recommended by the president if they so desire. Before the president identifies any candidate as a finalist for the position of chancellor, the president shall notify the candidate of his or her intention and obtain the candidate's permission to advance him or her as a finalist. Following the supervising authority's evaluation of the candidates, he/she will present the selection to the appointing authority. The supervising authority may also ask the search committee for additional candidates. The supervising authority shall be solely responsible for discussion with the candidates concerning conditions and perquisites of employment.

j.h. Composition of the Search Committee
A search committee member takes on great responsibility not as a representative of a particular constituency but as a representative of all members of the university community.

Each member is expected to participate fully in committee activities and vote.

In the selection of search committee members, the supervising authority shall normally select the committee member from nominations received but may appoint a committee member whether nominated or not. The supervising authority shall appoint the search committee chair. In the case of a presidential search, the Board of Regents shall elect from among its members a chair, who shall conduct the meetings of the committee, and a vice chair, who shall assume the duties of the chair in the chair's absence. Unless seven or more regents are members of the same political party, the chair and vice chair shall not be members of the same political party.

(1) President
The Board of Regents shall appoint the presidential search committee. The presidential search committee shall consist of two regents; one dean of a school, college, or library; four faculty who are members of the Faculty Senate, one representing each campus; one student; one staff; two alumni/ae; and four community members. In appointing the presidential search committee, the Board of Regents will strive to appoint a diverse committee that includes a variety of backgrounds, expertise and perspectives to represent the interests of the university and the state. The board may also appoint additional members if deemed appropriate.
Notwithstanding the above, the board reserves the right to appoint regents as the search committee.\[114\]

The Board of Regents shall appoint the presidential search committee membership accomplished by regent by regent resolution. The composition of the presidential search committee shall be as follows: In appointing the presidential search committee, the Board of Regents will strive to appoint a diverse committee that includes a variety of backgrounds, expertise and perspectives to represent the interest of the university and the state. The Board of Regents shall solicit nominations for the presidential search committee, and shall include the following as appointments, but nothing herein shall limit the Board of Regents to appoint additional members of the search committee as it deems necessary.

- Two Regents - The Board of Regents shall elect from among its members a chair, who shall conduct the meetings of the committee, and a vice chair, who shall assume the duties of the chair in the chair's absence. Unless seven or more regents are members of the same political party, the chair and vice chair shall not be members of the same political party. Additionally, the presidential search committee chair cannot serve as board chair simultaneously.

- One Dean of a school, college, or library – The board will request the chancellors and Council of Academic Deans\[115\] to nominate one or more deans from each campus.

- Four Faculty Members, representing each campus – The board will request that the faculty governance groups nominate more than two faculty members who are members of the Faculty Senate with distinguished records of achievement from each campus, and shall select four faculty members from among those nominees.-

- One Student – The board will request that the student governance organizations nominate two or more students from the student governance organizations from each campus, and shall select one student member from among those nominees.-

- One Staff Member – The board will request that the staff governance organizations nominate two or more staff from the staff governance organizations from system administration and each campus and that both classified and university staff be nominated, and shall select one staff member from among those nominees.-

- Two Alumni/ae – The board will request that the alumni organizations nominate two or more alumni from the alumni organizations from each campus, and shall select two alumni/ae members from among those nominees.-

- Four Community Members – The board will solicit nominations from the community, and shall select four community members from among those nominees.-

Notwithstanding the above, the board reserves the right to appoint only regents as the search committee. If the board appoints only regents as the search committee, a written justification will be released to faculty and staff\[116\].

In accordance with subsection 3.C.3b of this policy, the Board of Regents shall provide a charge to the presidential search committee. That charge will include involving the Board of Regents at designated points in the search process. Those points will include, at a minimum: meeting with the Board of Regents to review the candidate pool at the point in the search where the committee has sufficiently narrowed the pool that it is having serious discussions regarding which candidates will be invited for initial interviews; and, referring a minimum of five unranked candidates to the Board of Regents for the Board of Regents to consider interviewing. Following those interviews, the determination of which candidates will be designated as the finalist(s) shall be made by the Board of Regents. Before the Board of Regents identifies any candidate as a finalist, the chair and vice chair of the presidential search committee shall notify the candidate of the Board of Regents’ intention and obtain the candidate’s permission to advance him or her as a finalist. When narrowing the pool of candidates, the presidential search committee shall utilize a positive voting process similar to that described in Appendix A to this policy.

(2) Vice Presidents

a. For all vice president positions, the president shall appoint the search committee.

b. Before appointing the search committee, the president shall solicit nominations from the faculty, staff and student governance groups, and each governance group shall promptly either nominate one or more members or inform the president that it declines to provide a nomination.

The chair, in consultation with the president, may also designate an officer of the administration to serve as an administrative co-chair of the committee to coordinate the search committee’s activities. The search committee chair shall solicit nominations from the faculty, staff and student governance groups to serve on the search committee and each governance group shall promptly either nominate one or more members or inform the chair that it declines to provide a nomination. The chair, in consultation with the president, may also appoint such other members, including members of the financial community, to create a diverse committee that includes a variety of backgrounds, expertise and perspectives relevant to the position.

Temporary Appointment to President of the University of Colorado

Temporary Appointment to President of the University of Colorado. In the event of a president’s inability to act, whether as the result of a prolonged absence or incapacity, the chair of the Board of Regents may, after consultation with the chancellors, appoint a temporary president of the University of Colorado. The chair may appoint either an incumbent chancellor or an incumbent vice Within five business days of the chair of the Board of Regents’ appointment of a temporary president, the Board of Regents shall convene, either by regular or special meeting, and appoint an interim president to serve as the president of the University of Colorado. The interim president shall have all of the powers of and be subject to all of the restrictions imposed on the president. The interim president shall serve at the discretion of the Board of Regents until such time as the Board of Regents appoints a permanent president.

Policy 3FD: Searches for Officers of the Administration for Other University Staff

Search procedures for officers other than those defined in Regent Policy 3-E (president, vice presidents, chancellors, vice chancellors, and deans of schools, colleges, and libraries), and university staff will be conducted in accordance with procedures defined in campus or system administration affirmative action plans, as appropriate.

3.D.1 Search Committees for Officers of the Administration

(A) Search committees are recommended when vacancies occur in positions that are Officers of the Administration

(B) Qualified internal candidates shall be given an equal opportunity to compete with qualified external candidates.

(C) All searches must be conducted in a timely and professional manner that respects the rights of candidates to confidentiality, to the extent permitted by law.

(D) All searches are managed by the respective campus or system administration.

3.D.2 Definitions

(A) Appointing authority

The appointing authority is the individual or body who shall approve the appointment.

(B) Supervising authority

The supervising authority is the individual or body to whom the employee directly reports.

(C) Candidate

A person who applies or who consents to be considered for such position upon nomination by another and who is deemed qualified for the position, as determined by the search committee.

(D) Finalist

A candidate who has agreed to be advanced for final consideration and potential appointment.

3.D.3 Search Procedures for Officers of the Administration

(A) Search Charge and Process

The charge and process of the search committee for Officers of the Administration are defined by the appropriate campus or system administration leadership.

(B) Composition of the Search Committee

(1) Chancellors

The president shall appoint the search committee. The chancellor search committee shall consist of at least four faculty members (including one dean nominated by the provost);
one student; one staff; and one alumnus/a, or Colorado resident. The president shall request that the faculty, staff, and student governance groups; and alumni organizations nominate from within their memberships. The president may also appoint additional members if deemed appropriate. The president shall appoint an officer of the administration who shall serve as the search committee chair.

In the cases of searches for chancellors, the president will consult with the regents in the final selection process and the regents may be involved in interviewing candidates recommended by the president if they so desire. Before the president identifies any candidate as a finalist for the position of chancellor, the president shall notify the candidate of his or her intention and obtain candidate’s permission to advance him or her as a finalist.

A candidate for the office of chancellor who is named as a finalist shall be named in accordance with the requirements of Section 24-6-402(3.5) C.R.S. and records pertaining to that person shall be available for public inspection as allowed by Section 24-72-204 (XI)(A-B) C.R.S.

(2) Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs (Provost)

(3) All other Officers of the Administration
For all other Officers of the Administration, if the appointing authority determine a search is necessary, the appointing authority, will select committee members representing constituencies affected and, if appropriate, outside persons having expertise in the field.

Policy 3GE: Appointments of Officers of the University and Officers of the Administration and Evaluations of University Staff

Definitions:

1. Appointing authority. The "appointing authority" means the Board of Regents or the Board's delegate as authorized by Regent Policy 2-K.

2. Supervising authority. The "supervising authority" means the individual to whom the employee directly reports. For those employees reporting to the Board of Regents, the "supervising authority" means the Board of Regents.

3.E.1 Conditions of appointments for university staff:

(A) The terms and conditions of every appointment shall be stated in writing and shall be in the possession of both the university and the appointee, whenever possible, before the appointment is begun.
(B) Except as otherwise expressly provided in an individual employment contract, as authorized by state law, officers are employees-at-will in their positions. Service as an officer is at the pleasure of the appointing authority. The appointment is terminable by either the employee or the appointment authority at any time.

(C) Officers are subject to all laws, policies and regulations for university staff.

Employee-at-will. In accordance with C.R.S. §24-19-104 university staff shall be employees-at-will in their university staff positions unless expressly provided an employment contract authorized by C.R.S.
§24-19-104(1.5). An employee-at-will shall be appointed for an indefinite period of time. The appointment is terminable by either the employee or the appointing authority at any time. The terms and conditions of an appointment shall be set forth in a letter of offer in compliance with state law and university policy.

3. Term employment contracts and employment extensions

In accordance with CRS §24-19-104 (1.5) each campus and system administration may have in effect not more than six employment contracts or employment contract extensions of not more than five years. A term employment contract has an explicit termination date and means that the appointment does not continue after that date unless the Board of Regents approves an extension of the term employment contract.

A term employment contract for a specific term is not a guarantee of a particular position, duties, or salary for the term of appointment. The appointing authority may make an administrative reassignment at a salary appropriate for the new position.

B. Position descriptions:

The supervising authority shall develop and maintain a position description outlining the duties and responsibilities.

3.F Evaluations for officers of the university and officers of the administration of university staff:

Evaluations shall be based upon the position description and performance planning between supervisor and individual. Evaluations should provide constructive feedback on the university staff's service.

3.F.1 Annual evaluations.

(A) Officers of the university shall be evaluated on an annual basis by the Board of Regents.
(B) Officers of the administration shall be evaluated on an annual basis by current supervisor.

University staff shall be evaluated on an annual basis in accordance with Regent Policy 11-
F.4.

3.F.2 Comprehensive evaluations for officers—(A) The president, university counsel and secretary, treasurer, university counsel, associate vice president of internal audit, and vice presidents, chancellors, vice chancellors, and deans of schools, colleges and libraries shall be subject to a comprehensive evaluation not less frequently than at least once in each every five years of service in accordance with Regent Laws and policy. However, at the discretion of the supervising or appointing authority these officers may be evaluated comprehensively at any time.

(B) All other officers of the administration may be subject to a comprehensive evaluation per campus or system procedure.

(C) The supervising authority directs comprehensive evaluations. In the event that an officer has more than one supervising authority, the comprehensive evaluation process shall be jointly defined and conducted. An assessment of the officer's fulfillment of long-term responsibilities over the comprehensive evaluation period shall include consultation with appropriate individuals from inside and outside of the university and consideration of the resources and other support needed to fulfill responsibilities. The officer under review shall provide a statement of accomplishments, self-evaluation, and long-term objectives. Upon completion of the comprehensive evaluation, the supervising authority shall make any necessary changes to the officer's position description, in accordance with university policies.

Information received or created, except the summary report, as a part of an evaluation shall be placed in the officer's personnel file and shall be considered confidential. However, such information shall be available to the individual being evaluated except for letters of reference or if the individual as waived the right of access. The summary report of the evaluation shall be prepared, shall be available to the public and shall be placed into the officer's personnel file.

1. Other evaluations. The supervising authority or appointing authority may conduct evaluations in any form and at any time deemed appropriate for any university staff. Information received or created, except the summary report, as a part of an evaluation shall be placed in the university staff's personnel file and shall be considered confidential. However such information shall be available to the individual being evaluated except as such information is a letter of reference or the individual as waived the right of access. The summary report of the evaluation shall be prepared, shall be available to the public and shall be placed into the university staff's personnel file.

C. University staff holding regular faculty appointments:

In those cases where an university staff also holds a regular faculty appointment within a school or college, the administrative and academic appointments will be treated independently, subject to applicable rules and policies.

D. Evaluation of non-presidential personnel with reporting roles to Board of Regents (university counsel and secretary of the Board of Regents; university treasurer; and associate vice president of internal audit):

Consistent with the Laws of the Regents and Regent Policy, the performance of university staff with reporting roles to the Board of Regents will be evaluated and rated annually. The performance evaluation will be based upon the position description and performance planning between the relevant board member and employee. The performance evaluation provides the basis for individual performance ratings and merit and other pay adjustments. The performance rating is the overall summary rating of the individual's performance and constitutes the public record of rating, in accordance with the Colorado Open Records Act.

DEFINITIONS

Performance Evaluation: Performance evaluation is a collaborative supervisor/employee process that begins with identification of job responsibilities found in a position description, the contract/letter of offer, and in the unit's workload policies. Performance evaluation includes mutual agreement on a performance plan, as well as feedback on defined goals and objectives. Performance evaluation concludes with an assessment of performance. During a performance evaluation, documents and comments from a variety of individuals that relate to an individual's performance may be collected and reviewed.

Performance Rating: A performance rating derived from the evaluation process is a five to one (5-1) point summary rating defined as follows:
5 - Outstanding. Far exceeds performance expectations on a consistent and uniform basis. Work is of exceptional quality in all essential areas of responsibility. In addition, makes an exceptional or unique contribution in achievement of unit, department, and University objectives.

4 - Exceeding Expectations. Always achieves performance expectations and frequently exceeds them. Demonstrates performance of a very high level of quality in all areas of responsibility.

3 - Meeting Expectations. Consistently fulfills performance expectations and periodically may exceed them. Work is of high quality in all significant areas of responsibility.

2 - Below Expectations. Fails to meet expectations in one or two of the significant/essential position requirements and improvement is needed in these areas.

1 - Fails to Meet Expectations. Fails to meet expectations in more than two of the significant/essential position requirements and improvement is needed in most aspects of position.

STATEMENT OF POLICY
University staff with reporting roles to the Board of Regents will be evaluated and receive a performance rating on an annual basis. Individual performance evaluations and ratings provide the basis for annual merit and other pay adjustments. The process for such evaluations shall be as follows:

f. The performance evaluation of the individual shall begin with the individual's self-assessment of performance. This self-assessment will be based on defined goals and objectives previously established and agreed by the relevant board member and the individual. This relevant board member for each position is as follows:

  i. The chair of the Board of Regents for the university counsel and secretary of the Board of Regents

  ii. The chair of the Regent Audit Committee for the associate vice president of internal audit

  iii. The chair of the Regent Budget and Finance committee for the university treasurer

g. The completed self-assessment will be provided to both the relevant board member as well as the appropriate University of Colorado officer assigned to the individual.

  i. The president, in consultation with the chancellors, shall review the self-assessment and provide comments to the university counsel and secretary of the Board of Regents.

  ii. The vice president, university counsel and secretary of the Board of Regents, in consultation with the president and the chancellors, shall review and provide comments to the associate vice president of internal audit.

  iii. The vice president and chief financial officer, in consultation with the vice chancellors and chief financial officers, shall review and provide comments to the university treasurer.

h. The University of Colorado officer reviewing the self-assessment shall meet with the individual to discuss the assessment and the related feedback.

  i. The appropriate University of Colorado officer shall prepare a confidential memorandum that discusses the self-assessment, the meeting and the feedback received on the individual's performance during the evaluation period, makes a preliminary recommendation of the performance rating to be assigned to the individual, discusses potential goals for the upcoming evaluation period, and, if appropriate, recommends any merit or other pay adjustments.
The president shall transmit the memorandum related to the university counsel and secretary of the Board of Regents to the chair of the Board of Regents.

The vice president, university counsel and secretary of the Board of Regents shall transmit the memorandum related to the associate vice president of internal audit to the chair of the Regent Audit Committee.

The vice president and chief financial officer shall transmit the memorandum related to the university treasurer to the chair of the Regent Budget and Finance Committee.

The regent who receives the memorandum shall meet with the individual to discuss the assessment. It is the sense of the board that the assigned regent shall consult with the relevant committee members and, if appropriate, the entire board, before assigning a performance rating to be assigned to the individual, defining goals for the upcoming evaluation period, and, if appropriate, recommending any merit or other pay adjustments.

The assigned regent shall transmit the performance rating and any recommended merit or other pay adjustments to the Board of Regents for approval.

Upon approval by the Board of Regents, the chair of the Board of Regents shall document the performance rating on the University Staff Annual Performance Rating Form.

The individual has the right to append a response to the rating if he or she so desires.

The chair of the Board of Regents and the individual will sign the performance rating form to acknowledge that the rating has been discussed.

The supervising authority will retain the original signed rating form and provide the rated employee a copy of the signed form.

The performance rating form will be placed in the employee’s personnel file. The performance rating is subject to disclosure under the Colorado Open Records Act. Any written justification for the performance rating may also be placed in the personnel file but will not be disclosed to anyone other than the employee and university personnel with a demonstrated business need. Human resources offices are responsible for approving such access.

Performance ratings for annual merit or salary adjustment consideration shall be submitted to the applicable human resources office in accordance with individual campus-defined submittal dates.

The performance rating is only one item of information that may be used, consistent with the Laws of the Regents and university policy, in the annual salary setting process or in comprehensive administrative evaluations.

Policy 3I: Compensation for Administrative Officers Returning to Any Faculty Positions

An administrator who holds a tenured position at the University of Colorado has the right to return to his/her tenured faculty position upon conclusion of the administrative appointment. Letters of offer or addenda for administrators who are also tenured faculty shall include reference to this policy, and a copy of this policy shall be attached.

The faculty salary of an administrator returning to a faculty position shall be determined by the appointing authority in consultation with the dean of the college and the chair of the unit in which the faculty position is rostered. The appropriate salary shall be based upon the faculty member’s academic and administrative experience, expertise, standing in the discipline, and the functions the faculty member is expected to perform. The faculty member’s salary shall be within the salary range of faculty of the same rank in the academic unit and shall be no higher than the highest salary in the academic unit. Only under the most Policy 3J: Definitions of University Employees who are Exempt from the State Personnel System

1. Officers of the university shall be as described in Regent Laws Article 3.A.1.

2. Officers of the administration as referred to in Regent Laws 3.A.2 shall be those individuals who hold the title or interim/acting title of vice president; chancellor; associate vice president; assistant vice president; vice chancellor; associate vice chancellor; associate university counsel; and deans of the schools, colleges, and libraries.

3. Further, on written request the president may designate other officers of the administration.

4. The designation “officer” shall be included in the letter of offer and the university’s official personnel roster. Consistent with the state law, officers of the university and officers of the administration are exempt from the state personnel system.

1. Policy

It is the policy of the Board of Regents that it shall evaluate the President of the University of Colorado on an annual basis.

2. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to establish and communicate the Board of Regents’ expectations of the President of the University of Colorado and to establish procedures to annually evaluate performance. This performance procedure is not intended to and does not displace the comprehensive evaluation required by Regent Policy 3.G.

3. Procedures

a. The board shall review the performance of the president on an annual basis. The annual evaluation period will be July 1 through June 30.

b. Goals of Performance Evaluation: The performance evaluation is intended to promote the following goals:

(1) To assess the president’s performance in key areas.

(2) To increase the communication between the board and the president and to clarify the board’s expectations of the president.

(3) To ensure that the board and the president have a common understanding of and commitment to addressing the priorities of the University of Colorado.

(4) To allow the board and the president to have a meaningful dialogue in setting the criteria against which the board will measure the president’s performance.

(5) The board and the president will develop performance plan on an annual basis.

c. Recurring Criteria: The performance plan shall include a number of criteria that the board shall evaluate on an annual basis. This recurring criteria are meant to reflect core competencies of the office of the president, including:

(1) Communication and relationship with the board;

(2) Fiscal management of the university;
(3) Supervision of key personnel, such as chancellors and vice-presidents;
(4) Governmental and community relations;
(5) Promotion of academic excellence and student success at the university;
(6) Promotion of ethical conduct at the university;
(7) Promotion of the reputation of the university;
(8) Promotion of advantageous relationship with university-affiliated entities;
(9) Fundraising.

d. Non-recurring criteria: The performance plan shall also include a number of evaluation criteria, mutually agreed upon by the board and the president, that are designed to address the current needs and goals of the university. For example, the board and the president could identify "increasing enrollment for university campuses by 1%" or "development of a portal for online resources" as non-recurring evaluation criteria.

e. The board shall determine whether the president’s performance has been:
   1 - Exceeding Expectations: Consistently superior achievement reflecting a positive contribution to the University of Colorado that significantly advances the mission of the organization.

   2 - Meeting Expectations: Consistent achievement demonstrating a high level of competency in the area being evaluated. Performance at this level demonstrates that the President of the University of Colorado reliably performs the duties described in the performance plan and advances the mission of the organization.

   3 - Below Expectations: Performance in the area being evaluated does not consistently meet the expectations described in the performance plan,

f. Open Records Requirement. [The board shall also evaluate the president’s performance, as a whole, as Exceeding Expectations, Meeting Expectations, or Below Expectations.] The board overall evaluation of the president shall be available for public inspection as a “performance rating” under the Colorado Open Records Act, C.R.S. 24-72-202(4.5), but all other information generated or prepared during the evaluative process shall be maintained as “personnel file” records not subject to inspection or disclosure.

g. Annual Performance Calendar: For purposes of performance evaluation, the board shall use the following schedule as recommended target dates:

   • July 1 – First day of evaluation period.
   • December 30 – Chair of board and president to meet to discuss year-to-date performance.
   • First board Meeting of Calendar Year/Mid-year Review – The board and the president will discuss year-to-date performance in executive session at the regularly scheduled board meeting.
   • May 1 – Chair of board and president meet to discuss performance evaluation and to discuss potential performance goal for next year’s evaluation.
   • May 15 – President of university submits self-evaluation to board.
   • June 1 or most closely scheduled board meeting – The board shall meet in executive session to discuss performance evaluation and performance goals for next year’s evaluation. Secretary of the board prepares draft of performance evaluation and draft of performance goals.

- June 15 – president meets with chair of the board to review performance evaluation and draft of performance goals for next year’s evaluation.

- June 30 – President meets with board in executive session at a regularly scheduled board meeting to finalize performance evaluation and performance goals for next year’s evaluation.

- July 15 – Finalized performance evaluation and performance goals transmitted to president.

E. Evaluation of non-presidential personnel with reporting roles to Board of Regents (university counsel and secretary of the Board of Regents; university treasurer; and associate vice president of internal audit):

3.F.4 Annual Evaluation for all other Officers of the University

Consistent with the Laws of the Regents and Regent Policy, the performance of university staff with reporting roles to the Board of Regents will be evaluated and rated annually. The performance evaluation will be based upon the position description and performance planning between the relevant board member and employee. The performance evaluation provides the basis for individual performance ratings and merit and other pay adjustments. The performance rating is the overall summary rating of the individual's performance and constitutes the public record of rating, in accordance with the Colorado Open Records Act.

DEFINITIONS

iii. The vice president and chief financial officer, in consultation with the vice chancellors and chief financial officers, shall review and provide comments to the university treasurer.

c. The University of Colorado officer reviewing the self-assessment shall meet with the individual to discuss the assessment and the related feedback.

d. The appropriate University of Colorado officer shall prepare a confidential memorandum that discusses the self-assessment, the meeting and the feedback received on the individual’s performance during the evaluation period, makes a preliminary recommendation of the performance rating to be assigned to the individual, discusses potential goals for the upcoming evaluation period, and, if appropriate, recommends any merit or other pay adjustments.

i. The president shall transmit the memorandum related to the university counsel and secretary of the Board of Regents to the chair of the Board of Regents.

ii. The vice president, university counsel and secretary of the Board of Regents shall transmit the memorandum related to the associate vice president of internal audit to the chair of the Regent Audit Committee.

iii. The vice president and chief financial officer shall transmit the memorandum related to the university treasurer to the chair of the Regent Budget and Finance Committee.

e. The regent who receives the memorandum shall meet with the individual to discuss the assessment. It is the sense of the board that the assigned regent shall consult with the relevant committee members and, if appropriate, the entire board, before assigning a performance rating to be assigned to the individual, defining goals for the upcoming evaluation period, and, if appropriate, recommending any merit or other pay adjustments.

f. The assigned regent shall transmit the performance rating and any recommended merit or other pay adjustments to the Board of Regents for approval.
g. Upon approval by the Board of Regents, the chair of the Board of Regents shall document the performance rating on the University Staff Annual Performance Rating Form.

   \[iv-i\] The individual has the right to append a response to the rating if he or she so desires.

   \[v-ii\] The chair of the Board of Regents and the individual will sign the performance rating form to acknowledge that the rating has been discussed.

   \[vi-iii\] The supervising authority, The Board of Regents, will retain the original signed rating form and provide the rated employee a copy of the signed form.

h. The performance rating form will be placed in the employee’s personnel file. The performance rating is subject to disclosure under the Colorado Open Records Act. Any written justification for the performance rating may also be placed in the personnel file but will not be disclosed to anyone other than the employee and university personnel with a demonstrated business need. Human resources offices are responsible for approving such access.

   \[i\] Performance ratings for annual merit or salary adjustment consideration shall be submitted to the applicable human resources office in accordance with individual campus-defined submittal dates.[L21]

   \[j-i\] The performance rating is only one item of information that may be used, consistent with the Laws of the Regents and university policy, in the annual salary setting process or in comprehensive administrative evaluations.
