LAWS OF THE REGENTS

ARTICLE 7: STUDENTS

Part A: Admissions

7.A.1 The goal of the degree admissions process is to identify individuals with qualifications that indicate a high probability for degree completion. Admission is based on evidence of scholarly ability and accomplishment, general level of academic performance before admission to the university, and motivation and potential for academic growth, and ability to work in an academic community.

7.A.2 The university reserves the right to deny admission or readmission to applicants whose credentials reflect an inability to assume those obligations of performance and behavior deemed essential by the university and relevant to any of its lawful missions, processes, and functions as an educational institution.

7.A.3 University admission policies shall comply with state law and the policies of the Colorado Commission on Higher Education.

Part B: Standards of Conduct

7.B.1 Campuses shall establish standards of student conduct as further specified in Regent Policy 7B.

7.B.2 Students are obligated to abide by the established standards of conduct. Determination of a standards of conduct violation and any subsequent disciplinary action shall be in accordance with Regent Policy 7B.

Part C: Academic Freedom

7.C.1 In any course, students shall be free to discuss topics or ask questions related to the topic of that course (see Regent Policy 7C), provided that students follow reasonable policies imposed by the instructor to ensure orderly discussion and progress toward class and course goals.

7.C.2 Students should be evaluated solely on academic performance, which shall be assessed according to the published requirements established by the instructor.
Part D: Student Government

7.D.1. The students of each campus shall be represented by a student government organization that reports to the chancellor.

7.D.2 Each student government organization shall operate in accordance with a constitution that defines the governing structure and principles. The constitution shall be approved by the chancellor.

7.D.3 An Intercampus Student Forum shall serve as the university-wide representative body for communicating with system administration and the Board of Regents matters of concern to the students on all campuses. The chair of the Intercampus Student Forum shall be the spokesperson for students when addressing the Board of Regents.
