

Excellence in Leadership Award

Description of the Award

The Excellence in Leadership Award honors a graduate of the Excellence in Leadership Program (ELP) who has shown exemplary leadership at the university. Nominations are accepted from any University of Colorado employee who has worked or is working with the nominee.

Award Nomination and Submission Process

All graduates of ELP who are currently working at the University of Colorado are eligible to be nominated. Self-nominations will not be accepted. Nominations should include:

- Completed 2021 Nomination Form
- Minimum of three letters of support, including a letter or email from the dean or direct supervisor, confirming his or her support of the nomination
- Supporting materials reflecting the nominee's accomplishments (e.g., vita/resume, periodicals, fundraising initiatives, demonstration of a global or national reach)
- Please limit the nomination to 10 pages, excluding the vita/resume. (Nominators may provide electronic links to additional supporting material.)

Nominations will be evaluated and an award recipient selected by a committee comprised of past recipients of the award.

Nominees should demonstrate excellence, in one or more areas:

- Leadership of organizations, departments, or teams
- Leadership of projects, programs, and/or research
- Fiscal management and/or fund raising
- Student instruction

Submit nominations and supporting material by email to elp@cu.edu, Employee Learning and Development. Nominations will be accepted until 5:00 pm, August 31st, 2021.

Presentation of Award

Presentation of the award will take place on Friday, November 19th, 2021 at the Excellence in Leadership Luncheon and Lecture at the Brown Palace Hotel.
