Student headcount has steadily increased and now exceeds 67,000.

- Resident enrollment increased 9 percent (~4,000 students).
- Non-resident enrollment increased 52 percent (~6,400 students) over the same time period.

- 1 in 4 students enrolled at a public college in Colorado are at CU*

CU Enrollment as of census date
*Statewide statistic as of fall 2018 census enrollment reporting
Full-time equivalent student enrollment (SFTE) increased 19 percent between FY 2009 and FY 2018.

- Resident SFTE enrollment has increased 10 percent (~3,800 FTE).
- Non-resident SFTE has increased 48 percent (~5,500 FTE).
- Undergraduate SFTE has increased 19 percent (~7,300 FTE).
- Graduate SFTE has increased 18 percent (~2,000 FTE).

Note: Graduate FTE calculation uses 24 credit hours.
In FY 2019, state funding to CU is $233 million (including tobacco settlement funds).

Adjusted for inflation and enrollment, the university needs $184 million to maintain the purchasing power it had in FY 2001.

Note: Data is based on Budget Data Books and CDHE FTE. CPI from BLS.
The balance between state support and tuition revenue has changed markedly since the 1970s.

State support was once more than three times tuition revenue. State support is now less than half of resident tuition revenue.

Note: Percentages based on nominal (unadjusted) dollar amounts.
State support represents a small share of total revenue for all Colorado public institutions.

The largest share of CU revenue comes from auxiliary and restricted revenue sources.

Auxiliary revenues include self-supporting enterprises, such as student housing and bookstores.

Source: Colorado Legislative Council April 2018 forecast; Office of the State Auditor October 2018.
State Support per Resident Student

State funding per resident SFTE at CU’s main campuses is well below the average for Colorado’s public four-year institutions.

CU Anschutz
FY 2001: $53,063

Change in State Support per Resident Student

State funding per resident SFTE has declined at all CU campuses since FY 2001 (adjusted for inflation).

Over the last decade, most Colorado institutions have experienced a significant loss in state funding per full-time equivalent student. CU campuses have contended with cuts ranging from 43 percent (Boulder) to 59 percent (Anschutz Medical Campus).

FY 2018-19

Despite recent increases in tuition rates, CU remains competitive with its peers.

Boulder resident undergraduate tuition remains below the peer group average, while Denver and Colorado Springs tuition rates are just above the peer average.

Note: Tuition rates are based on 30 credit hours per academic year. Boulder peer rates from AAUDE; UCCS/Denver peer rates from published rates; Rates do not include the portion covered by the College Opportunity Fund (COF).
*May include some medical school funding.

Note: FY17 state appropriations, student FTE and FY18 Tuition & Fees are from the CU Boulder Office of Planning, Budget and Analysis, via the Association of American Universities. Data updated Dec 2018.
Note: FY17 state appropriations and student FTE are the most recent IPEDS data available for peers. UCCS FY17 state appropriation is from budget data book (actual) and FY17 student FTE is from IPEDS. Tuition & Fees direct from campus websites. Chart updated Dec 2018.

If only resident students at UCCS are included, State Appropriations per Resident FTE is $2,775.
