Payroll

Please ensure that you submit your final timesheet prior to your departure.

After the effective date of your separation, you will lose access to your portal. If you wish to access a final pay stub or verification of employment or your W-2, please contact Employee Services at HCM_Community@cu.edu.

When will I receive my last paycheck?

- You must notify your supervisor and/or payroll liaison so they can submit information for your final pay, including any worked hours, overtime, vacation payout and additional payments owed to you.
- Although most final paychecks are paid on the regular pay date, please check with your supervisor/department.
- If you are an international employee with direct deposit, it is recommended you keep your U.S.A. bank account open until all final pay has been issued and deposited.

How do I get my W2 (to file taxes) and 1095-C (healthcare coverage)?

Ensure your address is up to date in order to receive your W2 form to file for taxes. If you change address after leaving, use this Address Change form (www.cu.edu/node/115909). Once you leave the university, you will no longer have access to your Employee Portal:

- Form W-2: Visit the W-2 webpage (https://www.cu.edu/node/168750) to learn more about access to your W2 after leaving CU.

Benefits

Please review each of the benefits to learn what coverage options may be available to you. You do not need to take action regarding your benefits. Benefits termination is initiated when your department enters the termination date* in our Human Resources system (HCM).

Review each benefit below to learn your options, coverage ending dates, and other valuable information as you transition.

*for HR partners HCM termination date is the first day an employee is no longer employed at CU (not the last date of employment). Please refer to The HCM Guide: Terminating an Employee \(PDF\) (www.cu.edu/doc/hcmsbs-terminating-employee.pdf-8) for more information on HCM and termination of employment.
