RE: Regent Policy 13.J: Generative Artificial Intelligence (Proposed New)

Background

Generative artificial intelligence ("genAI") offers opportunities to advance teaching, learning, research, and administration at the university. At the same time, genAI presents ethical, legal, and operational challenges that should be considered in its implementation.

Recommendations

As genAI use increases within the university, the university should implement policy promoting responsible, ethical, and equitable use of genAI by students, faculty, and staff.

Fiscal Review
