RE: Policy 2.L: Public Comment at Committee Meetings of the Board

Background

Policy 2.L: Public Comment at Committee Meetings of the Board was last reviewed in 2023. Under the five-year policy review plan, it is up for periodic review. I have reviewed the policy with staff for each regent committee, who concur with the recommended amendment.

Recommendations

Current policy has different procedures for requesting public comment at in-person and remote meetings. It does not specifically address hybrid meetings. The proposed amendment creates a single procedure for all meeting formats, requiring speakers to contact the Office of the Board of Regents by noon the day before the meeting. This change simplifies the process and allows for advance planning (e.g., adding public comment to the agenda, allotting time, etc.).

Fiscal Review

A. Do you think a fiscal review would be required for these proposed changes? No

1. If no, please explain. This can be accomplished within existing resources.
2. If yes, please share with the Office of the Vice President for Budget & Finance for review. N/A
