If you elect to enroll in Retiree Benefits, you will receive a billing statement each month detailing the cost of your benefit plans, unless you choose to suppress the mailing of a paper statement. The University also offers an Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) option for retirees/surviving spouses electing automatic withdrawal from a designated bank account. Premium payments are due by the end of the month in which you receive your billing statement. Failure to pay premiums by the established due date will result in termination of coverage.

I certify that:
1. I am a participant in the University of Colorado’s 401(a) Optional Retirement Plan (ORP) or in the Public Employers’ Retirement Association (PERA).
2. I understand that if I am a PERA retiree and I waive my benefits or fail to enroll in benefits within 31 days of my retirement date, I waive all rights to university benefits from this point forward.
3. I am terminating my active employment with the University of Colorado for the purpose of retirement.
4. To the best of my knowledge, the information contained in this document is accurate for purposes of calculating years of eligible University of Colorado service for retirement.
5. ES has given me an opportunity to provide additional employment data that is not contained in the University of Colorado’s HR database.
6. I have provided all additional employment data to the University of Colorado for purposes of retirement benefits eligibility.
7. I agree to abide by the eligibility, enrollment, and election procedures for my University of Colorado benefits as outlined in this form and on the ES website.

Note: The information contained in this form is used to determine benefit eligibility and premium payment. Inaccurate information may affect benefit eligibility and premium payment. You are responsible for ensuring the information contained herein is complete and accurate. Changes to information contained herein must be submitted within 31 days of your retirement date. Changes submitted after your retirement date will be reflected in your next premium payment and will not apply retroactively. Any unpaid premium balance owed will be sent to the State of Colorado collection office.
