TWO SYSTEMS, ENDLESS LEARNING

Begin developing your talents or learning new skills with Lynda.com and Skillsoft

Lynda.com and Skillsoft are easy-to-use online learning platforms provided to University of Colorado faculty and staff. Here are three reasons to start learning today:

1. Resources for every learning style. Master skills with your choice of videos, online books and courses.

2. Convenient for the busiest schedules. Learn at your own pace by accessing resources when it's convenient for you.

3. Topics for everyone. From business to design, choose from thousands of topics to help you develop your talents, advance your career or learn new skills.
