The University shall not be responsible or liable for Goods or Services, nor payment therefore, delivered or performed prior to issuance of this PO.
 2. Entire Agreement; Order of Precedence. The Agreement is governed entirely by the terms and conditions herein. This PO shall not be modified, superseded or otherwise altered, except in writing signed by an authorized signatory of the University and accepted by Supplier. If this PO is for Goods only, and Supplier has not delivered the Goods prior to the expiration of this PO, but Supplier delivers all of the Goods to the University only after expiration of this PO, then University, in its sole discretion, may accept the Goods under this PO by extending this PO and delivering the modification to Supplier; however, regardless of anything to the contrary, if the University does not extend this PO for any reason, then the Goods delivered after expiration of this PO shall be deemed rejected, Supplier shall arrange the return of all delivered Goods at Supplier's sole expense, and the University shall have no liability for any such Goods or any payment therefor.
 5. Delivery. Unless otherwise specified in this PO, delivery shall be FOB destination, freight prepaid and allowed. The University is relying on the promised delivery date and any installation or service performance set forth in this PO as material and basic to the University's acceptance. If Supplier fails to deliver or perform as and when promised, the University, in its sole discretion, may cancel its order, or any part thereof, without prejudice to its other rights, return all or part of any shipment so made at Seller's expense, and charge Supplier with any loss or expense sustained by the University as a result of such failure to deliver or perform as promised. The University shall be the sole judge in determining "equals" with regard to conformance with the specifications outlined in the Agreement and in this PO for quality, price, and performance. If any of the Goods and/or services are incomplete, defective, not in compliance with the specifications or other requirements of the Agreement or otherwise do not conform to this PO, University, at its sole discretion, may require Supplier to either (a) replace the Goods specified by the University or (b) perform the Services again, without additional payment from University. When defects in the quality or quantity of Goods and/or services cannot be corrected by replacement or re-performance, the University may (c) require Supplier to take necessary action to ensure that future performance conforms to this PO and (d) equitably reduce the payment due Supplier to reflect the reduced value of the Goods and/or services performed. These remedies do not limit the remedies otherwise available in this PO, at law, or inequity.

9. Travel Expenses. The University shall only reimburse supplier for actual pre-approved travel expenses. If this purchase is for Goods and/or Services (for the exclusive use of University) from either an in-state or out-of-state supplier, and the shipping destination is Colorado, this purchase should be tax exempt with no sales tax applied. The University shall not be liable for the payment of any taxes imposed on Supplier including, without limitation, excise, sales, or use taxes. The University tax exemption certificates are available at <https://www.cu.edu/psc/tax-exempt-status-0>. Amounts not paid by the University within 45 days of the University's acceptance of the invoice shall bear interest on the unpaid balance beginning on the 45th day at the rate set forth in CRS §24-30-202(24) until paid in full. Interest shall not accrue if a good faith dispute exists as to the University's obligation to pay all or a portion of the amount due. Supplier shall invoice the University separately for interest on delinquent amounts due, referencing the delinquent payment, number of day's interest to be paid, and applicable interest rate. The University may benefit from any early payment discount offered by Supplier by making payment within the timeframes required by Supplier to be eligible for such discount. If Supplier offers an early payment discount, then the discount shall be shown on Supplier's invoices to the University, and if the University makes payment on the invoice within the timeframe for the discount, Supplier shall either (a) accept the payment amount less the appropriate discount or (b) refund the discount back to the University. Except as specifically agreed in this PO, Supplier shall be solely responsible for all costs, expenses, and other charges it incurs in connection with its performance under this PO.
13. Subcontracts. Unless otherwise specified in this PO, Supplier shall not enter into any subcontract in connection with its obligations under this PO without the prior, written approval of University. Supplier shall submit to The University a copy of each such subcontract upon request by University. All subcontracts entered into by Supplier in connection with this PO shall comply with all applicable federal and state laws and regulations, shall provide that they are governed by the laws of the State of Colorado, and shall be subject to all provisions of this PO.

15. Survival of Certain PO Terms. Any provision of this PO that imposes an obligation on a party after termination or expiration of this PO shall survive the termination or expiration of this PO and shall be enforceable by the other party.
16. Third Party Beneficiaries. Except for the parties' respective successors and assigns, this PO does not and is not intended to confer any rights or remedies upon any person or entity other than the parties. Enforcement of this PO and all rights and obligations hereunder is reserved solely to the parties.

17. Waiver. A party's failure or delay in exercising any right, power, or privilege under this PO, whether explicit or by lack of enforcement, shall not operate as a waiver, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power, or privilege preclude any other or further exercise of such right, power, or privilege.

for hire for University, Supplier and Supplier Parties hereby irrevocably assign to the University all right, title and interest in and to all Foreground IP. Supplier and Supplier Parties will make full and prompt disclosure of Foreground IP to University. Supplier and Supplier Parties agree to promptly execute any additional documents or forms that the University may reasonably require in order to effectuate assignment of Foreground IP to University.

Supplier's Intellectual Property. Supplier and Supplier Parties will retain ownership of their pre-existing Intellectual Property and any Intellectual Property that it creates or acquires outside the scope of this PO (Supplier Background IP). If Supplier incorporates Supplier Background IP into the Deliverables or if Supplier Background IP is necessary to practice the Deliverables or the Foreground IP, Supplier hereby grant to the University a non-exclusive, royalty-free, irrevocable, perpetual, paid-up, worldwide license (with the right to sublicense), to use, reproduce, prepare derivative works, distribute, display, perform, sell, offer for sale, make, have made any such Supplier Background IP in connection with the Deliverables and Foreground IP.

This shall include, without limitation, any and all costs, expenses, claims, damages, liabilities, court awards and other amounts incurred by the Indemnified Parties in relation to (a) any claim that the Deliverables, Foreground IP, or Supplier Background IP infringes a patent, copyright, trademark, trade secret, or any other intellectual property right, (b) any claim for loss or improper disclosure of any confidential information or personally identifiable information, (c) for bodily injury or personal injury (including death), or loss or damage to tangible or intangible property to the extent caused, or alleged to be caused, by the negligent or willful acts or omissions of Supplier or any Supplier Party or (d) any claim related to Intellectual Property owned by a third party that is incorporated into the Deliverables or for which Supplier has obtained a license for the University to practice the Deliverables or Foreground IP.
20. Responsibility. Each party is responsible for the negligent or willful acts or omissions of its employees and contractors when acting under such party's direction and supervision. Notwithstanding anything in the Agreement to the contrary, the parties hereto understand and agree that liability for claims and injuries to persons or property arising out of the negligence of the State of Colorado, its departments, institutions, agencies, boards, officials and employees is controlled and limited by the provisions of the Colorado Governmental Immunity Act, C.R.S. § 24-10-101, et seq., as amended (CGIA). Any provision of this Agreement, whether or not incorporated herein by reference, shall be controlled, limited and otherwise modified so as to limit any liability of the University and the State to the above cited laws. It is specifically understood and agreed that nothing contained in the Agreement shall be construed as an express or implied waiver by the University of its governmental immunity or of the governmental immunity of the State of Colorado, as an express or implied acceptance by the University of liabilities arising as a result of actions which lie in tort or could lie in tort in excess of the liabilities allowable under CGIA, as a pledge of the full faith and credit of the State of Colorado, as an assumption by the University of a debt, contract or liability of Supplier in violation of Article XI, Section 1 of the Constitution of Colorado, or as a waiver of University's immunity under the Eleventh Amendment to the United States Constitution. Notwithstanding the terms of the Agreement or any other document: (i) other than for employees and contractors acting under CU's direction and supervision, CU is not responsible for any actions of any third parties, including its students; and (ii) no person may bind CU unless they are an authorized signatory.

The Vendor shall assess its own risks and if it deems appropriate and/or prudent, maintain higher limits and/or broader coverages.
23. CU Self Insured. The University shall not provide Contractor with insurance nor name Contractor as an additional insured on any policy. The University is self-insured pursuant to C.R.S. § 24 30 1501, et seq., under the Risk Management program of the State of Colorado.

The University shall give written notice of termination to Supplier specifying the part of this PO terminated and when termination becomes effective. Upon receipt of notice of termination, Supplier shall not incur further obligations except as necessary to mitigate costs of performance. For Services or specially-manufactured Goods, The University shall pay (a) reasonable settlement expenses, (b) this PO price or rate for Goods and/or Services delivered and accepted, (c) reasonable costs of performance on unaccepted Goods and/or Services, and (d) a reasonable profit for the unaccepted work. 29. Assignment. Supplier's rights and obligations under this PO shall not be transferred or assigned without the prior, written consent of The University and execution of a new PO. Any attempt at assignment or transfer without such consent and new PO shall be void. Any new PO approved by The University shall be subject to the same terms and conditions as those set forth in this PO.
30. Colorado Open Records Act. The University is a public institution, and, as such, is subject to the Colorado Open Records Act, C.R.S. §§ 24-72- 101 et seq. ("CORA"). The University's obligations under CORA supersede its obligations under this Agreement. In particular, the Agreement itself, including price terms, may be disclosed under CORA.

Price change requests will be a factor in any extension review process. The University will determine whether any requested price increase or an alternate option is in the best interest of University. Any price adjustment will require an updated PO.
35. Campus Deliveries. Supplier will familiarize itself with the University parking, campus delivery options, and loading zones. Not all campus buildings are directly accessible, and some require Supplier to unload at lots or loading areas that may not be adjacent to the delivery or work location. Neither Supplier nor any agent or employee of Supplier shall be deemed to be an agent or employee of University. Const. art. V, § 50, 42 U.S.C. § 289g-1, and 42 U.S.C. § 289g-2.

ADDENDUM 1:
Additional Terms & Conditions for Information Technology

These Information Technology Security Terms are an integral part of the agreement between the University of Colorado (“University”) and the Supplier (“Contractor”). Effective as of the agreement’s start date, these terms establish the responsibilities and obligations of the parties to protect, manage, and secure University data.

Both parties agree to adhere to these terms to ensure the confidentiality, integrity, and compliance of all data handled under this agreement.

1. Compliance with law. Supplier agrees to comply with all applicable state, federal and international laws, as well as industry best practices, governing the collection, access, use, disclosure, safeguarding and destruction of University data.
2. Ownership of Data. All data and/or content collected, created or prepared by the University and provided to Supplier in the performance of its obligations under the Agreement shall be the exclusive property of the University. Supplier shall not use, willingly allow or cause to have such data used for any purpose other than the performance of its obligations under the Agreement without the prior written consent of the University. This provision shall survive the termination of this agreement.
3. Non-Disclosure/Confidentiality of Data. Neither party shall disclose any confidential data of the other party. Supplier further acknowledges University data may be subject to protections under federal and state laws and regulations and shall handle any such information in accordance with applicable law.
4. Basic Security Provisions. Supplier attests that it has implemented administrative, physical and technical safeguards for its data security that at a minimum meet industry best practices. Supplier shall ensure that all such safeguards, including the manner in which data is collected, accessed, used, stored, processed, disposed of and disclosed, comply with applicable data protection and privacy laws, as well as the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
5. Notification of Breach. Supplier will report to the University any confirmed or suspected data security breach that could result in the unauthorized access, use, or disclosure of University Information immediately upon discovery, but in no event more than three (3) business days after Supplier reasonably believes a security breach has or may have occurred. Supplier’s report will identify: (i) the nature of the unauthorized access, use or disclosure, (ii) the data accessed, used or disclosed, (iii) the person(s) who accessed, used, disclosed and/or received the data (if known), (iv) what Supplier has done or will do to mitigate any deleterious effect of the unauthorized access, use or disclosure, and (v) what corrective action Supplier has taken or will take to prevent future unauthorized access, use or disclosure. Supplier will provide such other information, including a written report, as reasonably requested by the University. In the event of a suspected data security breach, Supplier will keep CU informed regularly of the progress of its investigation until the uncertainty is resolved.
6. Liability for breach. Supplier agrees all costs, including but not limited to engagement of forensic investigators, related to the unauthorized access, use, or disclosure of University data shall be the liability of Supplier. Supplier agrees to comply with all applicable breach notification laws and assume responsibility for the notification of individuals on behalf of both the University and the Supplier and agrees all notification shall be the liability of Supplier. Supplier further agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the University, its employees and agents, against any and all claims, damages, liability and court awards including costs, expenses, and attorney fees and related expenses incurred due to the unauthorized access, use, or disclosure of University data.
7. Breach as Grounds for Termination. Any data security breach that results in the unauthorized access, use or disclosure of University Information is a breach of this Agreement and the University may immediately terminate this Agreement by giving written notice to the Supplier. If the University terminates this Agreement due to a data security breach by the Supplier, the University shall be entitled to a refund of any monies paid in advance prorated to the effective date of termination. The parties agree that any breach of the confidentiality obligation set forth in the contract may, at the University’s discretion, result in cancellation of further consideration for contract award and the eligibility for the Supplier to receive any information from the University.
8. Return and Destruction of Data Upon Termination of Agreement. Supplier will notify the University of impending cessation of its business or that of a tiered provider. Within 30 days of the termination, cancellation, expiration or other conclusion of this contract, Supplier will return any University data to the University unless the University requests in writing that such data be destroyed. This provision will also apply to all University data that is in the possession of subcontractors or subcontractors of Supplier. Supplier will certify in writing to the University that such return or destruction has been completed. Furthermore, Supplier shall provide verified confirmation of the disposal of any and all data and information received from the University. Disposal must be performed in a University-approved manner that maintains the confidentiality of the contents of such records (e.g. shredding paper records, erasing and reformatting hard drives, erasing and/or physically destroying any portable electronic devices). This provision will also apply to all University data that is in the possession of subcontractors or subcontractors of Supplier.
9. Response to Legal Requests for Data. If the University receives a subpoena, warrant, or other legal order, demand or request seeking University data maintained by Supplier, the University will promptly provide a copy to Supplier. Supplier will promptly supply the University with copies of data required for the University to respond, and will cooperate with the University’s reasonable requests in connection with its response.

Supplier shall use commercially reasonable efforts to notify all of its foreseeable agents, employees, subcontractors and assigns who will come into contact with University information that they shall comply with, and are subject to the confidentiality requirements set forth in the agreement and shall provide each with a written explanation of the requirements for confidentiality before they are permitted to access University information.
11. Geographic Location of Data. Supplier’s storage of University information outside the United States is prohibited without prior written consent from the University.

Supplier grants permission to the University to perform an assessment, audit, examination or review of all controls in Supplier's physical and/or technical environment in relation to all data being handled and/or services being provided to University pursuant to this Agreement. Supplier shall fully cooperate with such assessment by providing access to knowledgeable personnel, physical premises, documentation, infrastructure and application software that processes, stores or transmits data pursuant to this Agreement. Additionally, Supplier will provide the University, upon request, the results of the above audits, scans and tests, and will promptly modify its security measures as needed based on those results in order to meet its obligations under this Agreement. The University may require, at Supplier expense, Supplier to perform additional audits and tests, the results of which will be provided promptly to the University.
13. Periodic Security Assessments. Supplier will ensure that security measures are regularly reviewed and revised to address evolving threats and vulnerabilities while Supplier has responsibility for University information under the terms of this agreement. Prior to the effective date of this Agreement, and periodically thereafter (no more frequently than annually) at the University's request, Supplier will provide assurance, in the form of a third-party audit report or other documentation acceptable to the University, such as SSAE-16 SOC2 Type II, demonstrating that appropriate information security safeguards and controls are in place.
