Charting the Future Together

The University of Colorado's Board of Regents' Strategic Vision Framework Accelerating our journey toward educational excellence

To serve the students of the University of Colorado and the state of Colorado, the Board of Regents has created a strategic vision framework, one that captures the collective identity of CU's four campuses while also celebrating their unique cultures and strengths. This strategic vision identifies key pillars of excellence and facilitates systemwide collaboration, while also providing high-level direction for leadership and advancing CU's journey toward educational excellence.
