

eComm UAT ^[1]

June 23, 2015 by Kim Egan ^[2]

User Acceptance Testing (UAT) is slated for June 24-26. The eComm solution (both Salesforce and Marketing Cloud) is NOT ready for user, "live" consumption. However, the solution IS ready to be tested.

UAT is an opportunity for individuals to follow scripts (produced by ACF Solutions) and identify gaps and bugs. We fully anticipate folks to discover issues. Between UAT and go-live, ACF Solutions and other eComm partners will resolve the bugs. Launch is slated for July 27 (after training the week of July 20).
