

Tips & Tricks | The Transformational Journey to Campus-Wide CRM ^[1]

December 6, 2017 by Kate O'Connell ^[2]

Disruption in higher education has created an imperative to adopt campus-wide CRM strategies to support engagement across the entire student lifecycle. While the adoption of CRM solutions has proliferated particularly around recruitment and development, cross department-led / campus-wide initiatives have been slower. Institutions that have persisted nevertheless are delivering phenomenal results in their early initiatives.

In this webinar recording ^[3], you will learn:

- How Georgetown University, University of Wisconsin Extension, and University of Miami adopted and transformed their institutions with campus-wide CRM
- How to seek out the right solution providers and partners to ensure a profound impact on improving student engagement
- Why the success of campus-wide CRM rests on both the technology and a broad range of stakeholders, including faculty, staff, administrators, and alumni
- Why campus-wide CRM delivers long-term value for institutions of all sizes
