CU Anschutz Medical Campus Leadership Present to the Joint House and Senate Business Committees [1]

March 19, 2015 by Natalie Barry [2]

On February 17, the University of Colorado Anschutz Medical Campus Chancellor Don Elliman and Vice President for Health Affairs, University of Colorado and Executive Vice Chancellor of the Anschutz Medical Campus Lilly Marks, gave a great presentation to the Joint House and Senate Business Committees on the economic and health care impact the campus has on Colorado. Nineteen legislators were in attendance and many gave testimonials of how the campus has impacted their lives.
