CU-Boulder Chancellor DiStefano Meets with Colorado Congressional Delegation and Federal Agency Officials in DC [1]

March 31, 2015 by Natalie Barry [2]

On March 24-25, CU-Boulder Chancellor Phil DiStefano met with members of the Colorado Congressional delegation in Washington, DC to discuss campus student success and affordability initiatives, as well as university federal priorities. He also met with leadership at several federal agencies, including NSF Director France Córdova, NIST Acting Director Willie May, and Deputy Under Secretary of Education Jamienne Studley. DiStefano discussed federally sponsored research, university-federal agency partnerships, opportunities for future collaboration, and the Administration's proposed college ratings system.
