

Confirm faculty pay today ^[1]

August 11, 2015 by Employee Services 4 ^[2]

On Aug. 3, salary uploads for academic year faculty were processed. That means it's time to double-check salary amounts in HRMS, and make sure that new faculty members have selected a compensation preference.

Make sure that your faculty are getting paid correctly, and remind them that the default payment plan is over nine months. Every employee should be aware of their selection.

To check faculty salaries, use the Contract Pay report. You can find this report at:
