

Don't get left behind when clocks spring forward March 8 ^[1]

February 26, 2015 by \(not verified\) ^[2]

Don't let Daylight Saving Time throw off your business schedule; remember to set your clocks forward one hour on Sunday, March 8.

Take note of overtime and shift reporting around this time. You also should keep an eye on important March payroll deadlines ^[3] and upcoming business operations, including important dates noted on CU's payroll production calendars ^[4].

daylight saving time ^[5]

Display Title:

Don't get left behind when clocks spring forward March 8

Source URL: <https://www.cu.edu/blog/hcm-community/dont-get-left-behind-when-clocks-spring-forward-march-8>

Links

[1] <https://www.cu.edu/blog/hcm-community/dont-get-left-behind-when-clocks-spring-forward-march-8>

[2] <https://www.cu.edu/blog/hcm-community/author/0>

[3] <https://www.cu.edu/blog/pay-roles/march-2015-payroll-deadlines>

[4] <https://www.cu.edu/employee-services/skillssoft/payroll-production-calendars>

[5] <https://www.cu.edu/blog/hcm-community/tag/daylight-saving-time>