Encourage your employees to attend Flash Forward, posters coming to campus offices [1]

February 7, 2018 by Employee Services [2]

Whether your employees have recently started their careers or have been in the workforce for many years, Flash Forward: A CU Financial Event can help them develop a financial strategy tailored to their unique needs and goals. The University of Colorado Employee Services offers this programming to ensure employees are financially prepared.

Encourage employees to sign up

From Feb. 27 to March 8, Flash Forward will bring together presentations from Employee Services, Wells Fargo, TIAA, Elevations Credit Union, Public Service Credit Union, PERA and CollegeInvest.

Topics include:

- Student Loans, Credit and Money Management
- Wills and Trusts
- PERA Fundamentals
- Creating a college savings account
- CU's retirement account options and more

During the event, employees can grab a coffee and stop by financial booths to ask questions, snap up informational material and try out interactive games to get a better picture of what their savings look like and estimate how they can grow.

Please encourage your employees to sign up [3] and bring along a spouse or coworker.

Spread the word with posters

Help spread the word to other employees in your department by posting event posters, which are being sent to your office. Take a quick preview:
