HCM website's transaction section simplified [1]

September 20, 2023 by Employee Services [2]

HCM users complete hundreds of transactions on behalf of employees daily. To save you time accessing resources, all HCM Community website transaction guides and information have been consolidated into a single webpage [3].

Resources are organized alphabetically by transaction with all applicable step-by-step guides, forms, job aids and webinar recordings in one spot. Previously, the HCM Community website had separate pages for each transaction.

Bookmark this page for future reference. Updated transaction resources and guides will be maintained here.
