

Prepare for leave certification from Aug. 1 – 31 <sup>[1]</sup>

July 22, 2025 by Employee Services <sup>[2]</sup>

This year's Annual Leave Certification <sup>[3]</sup> process will run from Aug. 1 – 31.

Paid leave is an important feature of the University of Colorado's employee benefits. Because CU's many employee timekeeping methods (such as MyLeave) may be out of sync with our leave accruals, CU asks employees to verify the accuracy of their sick and vacation leave after the close of the fiscal year to ensure all vacation and sick leave balances are accurate.

Do not contact the Leave Team for vacation and sick leave balance irregularities

Please note: The university's specialized leave programs — FAMLI, FMLA, Parental Leave, etc. — are separate from the regular employee leave program. Please do not contact the leave team (leave@cu.edu <sup>[4]</sup>) for leave certification questions. Contacting the Employee Services Leave Team for balance issues may slow their ability to assist employees with programs they directly support, such as FAMLI, FMLA or parental leave.

Who to contact: To ensure timely leave certification help, please direct leave balance concerns to your supervisor or the HCM Service Center at hcm\_community@cu.edu <sup>[5]</sup> or 303-860-4200 (option 2), as described in Tip #5.

Employees who only earn state sick leave (primarily part-time and student employees) will not need to certify. As such, you should only remind benefits-eligible employees to certify their regular vacation and sick leave balances.

Employees who hold multiple positions, where one provides regular leave and the other only offers state sick leave should only certify their regular vacation and sick leave balances.

Review these important tips to complete this year's Annual Leave Certification successfully.

Tip #1 – Visit the Leave Certification webpage and download the step-by-step guide.

Visit the Leave Certification webpage <sup>[3]</sup> for full instructions. A shareable step-by-step guide <sup>[6]</sup> provides information for employee to certify leave and for supervisors to approve an employee's leave certification.

Tip #2 – Share the webpage and guide with supervisors

Be sure to share the Leave Certification webpage [3] and guide [6] with all supervisors, especially those who may be completing this step for the first time.

Supervisors, in turn, should share this guide with employees to help them walk through their role in the leave certification process.

Tip #3 – Ensure employees understand their responsibility to certify their leave

Leave certification can be completed through the Annual Leave Certification tile in the employee portal. This tile will be available throughout the duration of this year's process, Aug. 1 – 31.

Employees can follow these instructions to certify [3]. The most accurate location for current leave balances is in the Leave Balances tile in the employee portal.

Note: The method an employee uses to certify their leave depends on whether they track their time through My Leave or a different system. Instructions are available on the Employee Services' website [3] for each time tracking circumstance.

Eligible employees will receive emails notifying them of the leave certification process and deadlines, and they will stop receiving emails reminders once they certify.

Tip #4 – Remind supervisors to approve their employees' leave

Once an employee has certified their leave balances are correct, their direct supervisor must complete the process by approving the employee's certification. Supervisors are required to approve leave for their direct reports, including faculty members who supervise student employees. For this reason, the system does not allow proxies to approve on behalf of the supervisor.

If you have questions, please reach out to your department's supervisors about this requirement.

Tip #5 – Take action on leave errors

Employees should notify their supervisor if their leave balances do not match.

Supervisors, in turn, should reach out to the HCM Service Center at hcm\_community@cu.edu [5] or 303-860-4200, option 2, if they cannot readily identify the cause of the discrepancy with their payroll liaison.

An HCM professional will work with the employee or payroll liaison to reconcile these differences.

Tip #6 – Reach out if you have questions

The HCM Service Center can answer any questions you may have at hcm\_community@cu.edu [5] or 303-860-4200, option 2. Remind employees to not contact the Leave Team for vacation and sick leave balance irregularities.
