Some CU Career and HCM learning resources updated, send your suggestions for future items [1]

July 16, 2018 by Employee Services [2]

Throughout the year, Employee Services teams have worked together to ensure educational resources pertaining to CU Careers and HCM processes in the HCM Document Library [3] are up-to-date and accurate.

To do this, 95 step-by-step guides, job aids and other items have been revised and condensed, while 31 have been retired.

These updates help to maintain a streamlined Document Library, so system users can more easily find what they need.

Do you have suggestions for future learning resources?

If you have suggestions for step-by-step guides, job aids or other resources you'd like to see offered in the HCM Document Library, please email HCM_Community@cu.edu [4].
