Advanced Reporting Series - Conditional Formatting - Part II [1]

November 8, 2021 by haroon.rashid [2]

Our next training will be Advanced Reporting Series- Conditional Formatting on Thursday, November 18, 2021, from 12 pm -1 pm MST, via Zoom. This training is intended for report developers. We will review the following topics:

Agenda:

- Show/hide content based on report output
- Show/hide columns in a list based on a prompt
- Format based on column values

If you are unable to attend the training but would like a copy of the documentation, please email us at irm@cu.edu [3].

At this time we are planning on continuing our Advanced Reporting Series in the fall. If you would like any of our training documentation, including the New Report Developer training, along with a follow-up Question & Answer session over the summer, please email us at irm@cu.edu [3].
