Build a roadmap for future success by planning out your career [1]

July 7, 2023 by ES and UIS Communications [2]

There are a lot of jobs out there, no matter your desired field. Navigating it can feel overwhelming and scary. However, if you start today by building a career plan, you can set yourself up for success. In "Creating a Career Plan [3]," by Dr. Chaz Austin, you will learn how to build your own personalized career plan and when to start putting it into action.

Start by identifying your passions and how to build career goals. Move on to personal branding goals and building your network. Lastly, you will learn how to start looking for open positions to begin your career. In this course, you will also learn about critical skills like interview techniques and self-marketing. You will also learn plenty of tactics and skills to search for jobs, so you never get stuck.

Everyone's career plan is different, but the lessons taught in this course can apply to anyone's desired career path. Start making actionable goals now by creating your very own career plan, so navigating the job world post-college doesn't feel scary.
