From home to the classroom, start your leadership education today [1]

February 1, 2023 by Employee and Information Services [2]

Would you like to step into becoming a leader in both your school and community but aren't sure where to begin? Whether you'd like to assume more leadership over yourself, you aspire to pursue a leadership role or you've been entrusted with a new leadership opportunity unexpectedly, effective leadership is a learnable skill.

The 40-minute "Leadership Foundations [3]" course by Shirley Davis will teach you how to build leadership skills that are in demand today. The examples may be focused on professional leadership, but the foundations taught in this course are universal and can apply to so many facets in life.

Davis leads you through many frames of reference, from leading yourself to leading others and examining leadership styles. This course is applicable to being a leader in group projects, your volunteer group, or maybe even your intramural sports team. This course will teach you important leadership components such as communication skills, increasing team effectiveness and how to manage conflicts among many others.

Take a chance and start learning how to become a leader today.
