New FAMLI plan offers fresh batch of leave coverage [1]

November 22, 2023 by worsham@cu.edu [2]

The University of Colorado's self-funded and self-administered paid family leave program [3] will take effect on Jan. 1, 2024. This plan follows the Family and Medical Leave Insurance (FAMLI) program [4] established by the state of Colorado and will improve paid leave time for employees taking time off for family care or medical needs.

For details go to the Employee Services website page available here [5].
