

Renumbering of several regent laws and policies marks last step of formal review [1]

September 22, 2025 by worsham@cu.edu [2]

Following a 10-year effort to formally review and revamp all regent laws and policies, the Office of Policy and Efficiency (OPE) recently completed the last step by updating the numbering of several regent laws and policies.

For more information see the CU Connections article available here [3].

Regent Laws [4], Regent Policy [5]

Display Title:

Renumbering of several regent laws and policies marks last step of formal review

Send email when Published:

Yes

Source URL:<https://www.cu.edu/blog/ope/renumbering-several-regent-laws-and-policies-marks-last-step-formal-review>

Links

[1] <https://www.cu.edu/blog/ope/renumbering-several-regent-laws-and-policies-marks-last-step-formal-review> [2] <https://www.cu.edu/blog/ope/author/140198> [3] <https://connections.cu.edu/stories/renumbering-several-regent-laws-and-policies-marks-last-step-formal-review> [4] <https://www.cu.edu/blog/ope/tag/regent-laws> [5] <https://www.cu.edu/blog/ope/tag/regent-policy>