Let Your Campus Shine: CUSP Spotlights Good Work [1]

January 17, 2014 by normandy.roden [2]

The CU Shared Practices (CUSP) recognition program is accepting submissions Jan 1 - April 30, 2014. CUSP provides a great opportunity for departments from each campus to let the other campuses know about their innovations and improvements in business process, application of technology, communication, training, and other critical areas. Last year -- during the CUSP 2013 submission process -- we heard about great ideas put into place at Boulder (5), Colorado Springs (2), Denver (1), and Anschutz Medical Campus (4). Want to top last year's record for your campus? Be a part of CUSP 2014. Tell us about your good work at www.cu.edu/controller/initiatives/cusp/?page_id=30 [3]. We look forward to hearing from every campus!
