Accounting Handbook Moving Forward [1]

March 9, 2012 by (not verified) [2]

Many of you have already contributed comments on various chapters of the draft Accounting Handbook [3]. This major initiative – part of the University's Fiscal Procedures – has been under development since last fall. Effective July 1, 2012, we will publish select chapters on a final Accounting Handbook website – and begin to consolidate related policies/procedures so you have a single source of accounting guidance. There is still time to comment! Feel free to download one of the chapter word documents and mark your updates. Then send to FiscalProcedures@cu.edu [4].
