Catching up on Coffee [1]

August 15, 2014 by normandy.roden [2]

Over the past several weeks, you've provided more great feedback on our Finance System Pain Points website. Now we owe several of you coffee!

Congratulations to:

Kyla Jones (CU Denver), who shared hopes for a better Journal Entry process and workflow in future. (Yes – her hopes will come true!)

Linda Cross-Hagar (CU Boulder), who noted frustrations with FIN and HRMS look-ups of employee ID numbers, position numbers, and the like. (The FinPro Help Desk offered her some search tips.)

Bradley Bailey (UCCS), who conveyed excellent recommendations to improve Cost Share entry.

Lisa Kippur (CU Boulder), who pointed out the usefulness of spreadsheet creation capability.

Dennis Ristow (CU Boulder), who described frustrating financial data displays.

And Becka Toner (Anschutz Medical Campus), whose business processes don't work well with Journal Entry copy-down functionality (more on this topic next week!).

We'll send all winners to date their Starbucks coffee gift cards during the week of August 18. And – keep talking to us: www.cu.edu/peoplesoft-finance-pain-points [3] .
