

CPE Courses Offer Tips on Training, Taxes, and Internal Controls ^[1]

February 21, 2018 by normandy.roden ^[2]

We close out February and begin March with several course offerings from our Continuing Professional Education (CPE) Program. You can take advantage of the convenience of a live webinar ... or enjoy the collegiality of an in-person class ... or do both!

On Wednesday, February 28, join us for a new Train-the-Trainer webinar. We're delighted to partner here with Anita Wright Collins, Change Management Lead at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Anita has been working with our office to develop skill-building webinars for delivery to members of the Higher Education User Group (HEUG). She'll talk about when to consider a train-the-trainer approach for projects big and small, along with tips on when and how to implement this type of approach.

- Live webinar on Train-the-Trainer Approach: Tips, Tricks, and Lessons Learned ^[3] - 11:00 a.m.-11:50 a.m. Register now ^[4]

On Friday, March 2, join us for in-person professional development sessions that review recent tax changes and explain internal controls over accounting and financial reporting.

- In-person class on Personal Tax Update ^[5] - 11:00 a.m.-11:50 a.m. Register now ^[4]
- In-person class on Understanding Internal Controls ^[6] - 1:00 p.m.-2:50 p.m. Register now ^[4]

Bonus! If you register and attend both Personal Tax Update and Understanding Internal Controls, please join us for our CPE Wish List Lunch. The lunch is a great way for CPE participants to provide input into our course topics and schedule ... while getting to know campus colleagues and enjoying a light lunch.

- In-person CPE Wish List Lunch - 12:00 p.m.-12:45 p.m. Register now ^[4]
