CUSP 2012 Submission Deadline is August 31 [1]

June 21, 2012 by (not verified) [2]

You still have time to tell the world what you've done. The CU Shared Practices (CUSP) website is accepting submissions of good ideas in action. In fact, we recently posted a new submission: Customer Service Training Seminars from UCCS. Take a few moments today to visit the CUSP website to:

- Nominate yourself for something you've done to improve your department's efficiency or operations …
- Nominate a colleague for his or her outstanding contributions to good business processes at CU …
- Or just look over the submissions on file to see if any of these ideas might be put to good use in your own work area.

Guidelines and requirements for new submissions are readily available on the CUSP website. We look forward to hearing from you!
