Do Your Part … Encourage Submissions to CUSP [1]

February 22, 2015 by normandy.roden [2]

Do you want to see your department, your school or college, or your campus well represented in this year's CU Shared Practices (CUSP) Program?

Then do your part -- before April 30! You can promote the innovative work going on in your area in 1 … 2 … 3 easy steps:

1. Take a look at successful submissions from previous years. On the CUSP Past Submissions webpage [3], you'll find them neatly divided into categories, like Business Processes, or Customer Service.
2. Think of the innovative things that you and your colleagues have done and submit [4]... or encourage them to submit to CUSP. (You can also submit a colleague's accomplishment [5] – what a great thing to do!)
3. Want more information or encouragement before you commit to submit? Ask CUSP Program Coordinator Fran Chapman [6] to speak at one of your faculty or staff meetings!

Please visit the redesigned CUSP website [7] today. We look forward to hearing from you!
