October 21, 2014 by normandy.roden [2]

We spent a lot of time this past week talking to campuses about requirements.

A few things from last week:

- Completed Boulder user group meetings - learned about additional requirements and got great feedback. Thank you !
- Completed a General Ledger deep dive at Anschutz - gained more requirements and had excellent discussions. Thank you !
- Continued working on specifications for development.
- Discussed budgeting with CU Denver. Got some good insight into the web applications they use - talked about replacing them with PeopleSoft forms.
