October 10, 2019 by normandy.roden [2]

Fall into some good habits this fall with free professional development -- on your campus, or on your desktop.

We've opened registration for several courses in October-November 2019:

- What Makes an Effective Leader? [3] -- Learn how to draw on personal strengths to address a variety of challenges.This group-live course (new as of spring 2019!) is available at the Denver, Anschutz, Boulder, and Colorado Springs campuses in October/November. Participants will need to bring a laptop/mobile device in order to complete an in-class exercise.
- Process Mapping for Efficiency and Cross-Training [4] -- Delve into a team-based method for identifying, integrating, and diagramming processes between departments and individuals. This live webinar offers engaging instruction direct to your desktop in October. CPAs will need to answer all 3 poll questions presented during the webinar in order to request CPE credit.
- Understanding University Tax Liabilities: Tax Exempt Status & Sales Tax, Unrelated Business Income Tax & Handling Sponsorship Activities [5] -- Find out when CU has a tax liability, and how to pay it. This group-live course is available at the Denver, Anschutz, Boulder, and Colorado Springs campuses in October/November.
  At department request, we've expanded course time from 50 to 75 minutes in order to provide more information/discussion on sponsorships and other items.

Get details and sign up at www.cu.edu/controller/schedule-and-registration [6]. (When you visit that website, you'll notice we're in the process of scheduling additional training in the next few months. We'll let you know when registration opens up for those courses.)
