

FIN 9.2: March Close in Process -- and Other Updates ^[1]

April 8, 2016 by normandy.rodén ^[2]

March close is underway

System close for March is in process. Your March m-Fin reports will be ready to review as of Monday, April 11.

Fund-Account Combo Edit display page will return!

You asked for it.

In FIN 8.4, the Fund-Account Combo Edit page provided an overview, by Account number, of the Funds that were/were not allowable for the Account. FIN 9.2 has a different way of delivering this information, but the campuses have told us that the old page was convenient and valuable.

So we're going to recreate the Combo Edit page in FIN 9.2. We'll provide a timeline for this when we publish our FIN Issues list later this month.

FIN learning resources getting a brush-up

We've had several months of campus experience in FIN 9.2 by now. So it's a good time to take a new look at our learning resources for the system and revise them in light of campus questions and input.

Beginning Tuesday, April 12, we'll be blogging about new and updated FIN videos and printable guides. As always, if you have questions or suggestions about the FIN learning materials or other FIN topics, please email FinProHelp@cu.edu ^[3].
