July 31, 2012 by (not verified) ^[2]

As we develop the University-wide Accounting Handbook, we are consolidating the current multiple sources of information. Our goal is to streamline your search for guidance and to be respectful of your time. Many of the current Finance Procedural Statements (FPSs) will transform into chapters in the new Accounting Handbook. Other FPSs will be eliminated since they are either redundant with other existing documentation or out of date. The following crosswalk will help you prepare for these changes and for the publication of the Accounting Handbook next Mon, Aug 6.
